Aims At Forcing Berlin Concessions?

Mr. K's Cuba Move Hinted As Plot To Press Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev may have ordered construction of missile bases in Cuba as part of a Kremlin plot to put President Kennedy under a surprise threat of nuclear war in an attempt to force U.S. concessions on Berlin.

This possible strategic purpose for the sudden and unexplained installation of Soviet nuclear missiles 90 miles from the United States is being given serious consideration in official quarters here.

It is one of the reasons why authorities are sticking grimly to their conviction that while the first phase of the Cuban crisis has been passed on the naval blockade front a second and potentially far more serious phase is yet to come.

As to the nature of the second phase there are two possibilities in speculation. One is that Khrushchev is intent on forcing a showdown with the West over Berlin and may go through with his main plan in spite of the disclosure of the Cuban missile buildup. The other is that the U.S. government is determined that the missiles must be removed from Cuba and the bases demolished.

The frantic diplomatic search for a peaceful way out of the crisis, centered at the United Nations, is so far little more than a lull in the diplomatic storm which broke over the world Monday night.

A defense spokesman reports that Soviet missilemen and military technicians—of whom there are an estimated 5,000 on the Caribbean island—are still working at top speed to complete the bases and get whatever missiles are available to them in place.

The naval blockade force which President Kennedy set in motion Monday has proved an effective barrier to the introduction of more missiles into the island but the U.S. action has not evidently put a halt to the Soviet activities already under way there.

The question of why the Soviet government set out on such a radical new course in its cold war strategy, carrying a clear increase in the danger of nuclear war, is a source of intense study among experts and policy makers for it may give clues to future Soviet behavior.

One point on which authorities seem agreed is that the thrust of Soviet nuclear striking power into the Western Hemisphere must represent a basic Soviet policy decision made much earlier this year. The indication is that the decision called for a switch to a much more aggressive strategy with much greater reliance on military power to serve Moscow's expansionist purposes in the world.

Perhaps Khrushchev and his advisers had decided that their "peaceful coexistence" efforts to penetrate Southern Asia, Africa, and Latin America by economic means were too slow and too costly.

The projection of this analysis is that the Soviet government was compelled by frustration and impatience and perhaps by political discontent within the Soviet bloc, to achieve some spectacular victories in the cold war by a more reckless brandishing of nuclear weapons than ever before.

If that was the policy, the U.S. reaction upon discovery of the installations in Cuba seems to have given the Kremlin strategists a reason for pause and reassessment. Whether it has also persuaded them that they are in serious danger of setting off a nuclear war, no one here knows.

U Thant Set To Arrange Negotiations

Opens Preliminary Discussions With U.S., Soviet, Cuba

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Acting Secretary-General U Thant opens talks with the Soviet Union, the United States and Cuba today, hoping to set up negotiations to end the Cuban crisis that has frightened the world.

While both Moscow and Washington lifted some of the world tension by agreeing to preliminary talks, the United States continued its blockade of Cuba and kept up its demand for removal of Soviet missiles from Cuban soil.

Moscow Radio announced the Soviet Union's strategic rocket troops have been ordered on a state of increased combat readiness.

Premier Khrushchev's conditional acceptance of Thant's negotiation proposal was seen by Western diplomats in Moscow as preparation for him to appear before the United Nations. They said he also apparently had directed Soviet ships carrying arms to turn back from Cuba.

Washington sources said the Soviet ships turning back include most of those suspected of carrying offensive weapons, among them was a huge vessel designed to transport missiles.

A White House authority emphasized "there are still Soviet ships headed toward Cuba, and the only way this government can get precise information on some of these ships or the cargo they are carrying is through the quarantine."

The first Soviet ship stopped by the Navy blockade was an oil tanker, the Bucharest. She was not boarded and was allowed to proceed Thursday after an exchange with the blocking ship.

U.S. strategists believed the climax of the crisis was still to come with the issue up to the Kremlin whether the solution would be military or peaceful.

As the peace efforts focused on the United Nations, demonstrations for and against the U.S. blockade continued around the world.

Western Europe's newspapers greeted with relief the willingness of the United States and the Soviet Union to talk. But many feared the crisis may smolder for weeks.

Thant announced he would hold separate talks with the United States, the Soviet Union and Cuba, beginning today with U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson. Stevenson indicated to newsmen he would insist on proof that Soviet arms shipments to Cuba will cease and the Soviets will halt the erection of missile bases

Kobuta Union Rejects Plan

Koppers' Proposal Turned Down 2-1

The 600 members of Local 8-74 Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers of the Koppers Co. Kobuta plant voted 2-1 Thursday night against a new contract proposal offered by the company.

The workers have been on strike since May 1 when an old contract expired.

The voting started Thursday at 5 p. m. and ended at midnight at the union hall in Monaca. A four-hour meeting was held earlier in the day at which the terms of the settlement offer were discussed by the union officials without any recommendations.

The company's offer, supplemented by recommendations of a federal mediation panel, provided an 18-month contract with a 10-cent hourly raise, sick pay and hospitalization benefits.

It also provided for severance pay and improved pensions with mandatory retirement at age 65 and a minimum retirement age of 55.

The company said "it was unfortunate that the union did not act in favor of the offer," predicting it will ultimately be the basis of a settlement, "if one is ever reached."

Adlai Stevenson (right) challenges Soviet Russia to deny in the Security Council that the Soviet Union "has placed and is placing medium and intermediate missiles in Cuba." ## Union, Firms List 17 Points To Negotiate

Conference Slated At Cincinnati On Dinnerware Pact

Union and management negotiators today listed 17 points for discussion at a conference that will open Tuesday in Cincinnati to write a new working agreement for the American dinnerware industry.

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters listed 11 propositions, topped by a request for a "substantial" wage increase, made public earlier. The U. S. Potters Association, speaking for manufacturers, countered with six propositions.

Meanwhile, the IBOP announced a conference will open at Cleveland Nov. 23 with representatives of six chinaware firms to work out a new wage agreement with that branch of the industry.

The USPA-IBOP sessions will be held at the Terrace - Hilton Hotel. The present two-year agreement between the union and seven dinnerware firms runs out Nov. 30.

The union said its negotiators will convene in a pre-conference session Monday at the Netherlands Hilton Hotel.

E. L. Wheatley, international president, will head the IBOP's conferees. The USPA will be represented by its labor committee, headed by Joseph M. Wells Jr. of the Homer Laughlin China Co. and John T. Hall of the Hall China Co.

The IBOP-USPA contract now covers employees of the Homer Laughlin China Co., Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co., Hall China Co. and Harker Pottery Co., all in the East Liverpool area, and the Salem China Co. at Salem, the Royal China Co. and French - Saxon China Co., both of Sebring, and the Canonsburg Pottery Co. of Canonsburg, Pa.

The IBOP said it has been advised by the USPA that it no longer represents the Edwin M. Knowles China Co. in contract negotiations. Knowles has announced plans to liquidate.

In the negotiations with the chinaware producers, the IBOP said it will seek a "substantial" wage increase, an improved health and welfare plan and additional paid holidays.

Covered in the agreement are workers at the Sterling China Co. and Wellsville China Co., both of Wellsville, Walker China Co. of

Stolen Car Wrecked; 2 City Boys Arrested

Two 14-year-old East Liverpool boys were nabbed by Pittsburgh police Thursday afternoon after crashing an auto stolen in East End Wednesday.

Police here were advised by the Pittsburgh department that it had taken the two juveniles into custody after they crashed a 1955 four-door sedan which Walter A. Neiser, 1573 Globe St., reported stolen between 2 and 3:30 p.m. Wednesday from Globe St.

Police said the two probably will be referred to Juvenile Court at Lisbon.

Red Chinese Attack On 2 New Sectors

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Chinese Communist troops were attacking on two new sectors of the northeast border today, plunging deeper into India as Prime Minister Nehru's government prepared for a long struggle.

On the western front, in Ladakh, the defense ministry said the Communists were hurled back in an attack on Poet, a few miles from Chushul, where India has its only airfield near the battlefield. The fall of Chushul would be a severe blow to India's thin supply lines in Ladakh.

Radio Peiping claimed Indian attacks were repulsed both on the northwestern front in Ladakh and on the northeast front about 1,000 miles to the east.

A defense ministry spokesman said the new Chinese attacks on the northeast boundary were launched 32 and 50 miles east of Longju, about midway between Bhutan and Burma.

U.S. Explodes High A-Test Over Pacific

HONOLULU (AP)—The United States exploded a subnuclear nuclear device at high altitude above the Pacific early today. The flash briefly lit the ocean with a rainbow of red, green and blue for hundreds of miles.

A Thor missile, which failed in three previous tries at the same test, carried the warhead to its firing height, estimated at 30 to 40 miles. The booster apparently performed perfectly during its controlled flight to detonation.

The nuclear device packed a wall of between 20,000 and a million tons of TNT. It was the second most powerful high-altitude explosion of the 1962 series.

The actual detonation occurred near Johnston Island, 750 miles southwest of Hawaii. The blast was clearly visible there but in Honolulu it was a short-lived flash of light.

The test was the third high-altitude success of the drawn-out operation Dominic series which began April 25.

200 At Wellsville Rally

DiSalle Scores Assembly For Lack Of School Help

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle assailed the Republican-dominated 104th General Assembly for its stand on educational issues in a campaign address at a Democratic rally Thursday afternoon in the Wellsville First Christian Church.

Some 200 attended the noon luncheon, but the governor's appearance was delayed three hours because of hazardous flying weather.

DiSalle's plane had been slated to land in Steubenville, but was sent on to Wheeling Airport, and the governor motored to the rally from there.

The governor charged in a prepared statement that the 104th General Assembly "has taken the

Chester Man Posts Bond In Traffic Death

Imperial Driver Killed In Collision With Rig On Rt. 30

A Chester truck driver posted a $1,000 bond pending a coroner's inquest and waived hearing on a charge of driving too fast for conditions as the result of a fatal accident Thursday afternoon on Route 30 near Clinton.

William Ferguson, 34, of 920 Plutus Ave., Chester, driver of the rig, posted the bond and waived the traffic charge yesterday before Justice of the Peace Rowena Bishop of Route 30.

George N. Thomas, 59, of Imperial, an employee of the Manufacturers Light & Heat Co., was killed when the cab of his rented pickup truck was sheared off.

The Carnegie barracks of the Pennsylvania State police reported Ferguson said his vehicle skidded on the wet highway, jackknifed and swerved into the east-bound lane.

Police said the trailer of the rig sideswiped the pickup truck and autos being driven by Thomas McGrail of Coraopolis and Alan H. Hennel of Brentwood, Pittsburgh.

McGrail was taken to Slickley Valley Hospital in shock and with a possible brain concussion. Ferguson and Hennel were not hurt, police said.

The truck was westbound while the pickup truck and both cars were headed east, police said. The accident occurred 1.8 miles west of Clinton.

U.S. Launches Missile From California Base

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—The Air Force today launched a big Atlas-D intercontinental ballistic missile from this rocket and missile base.

It was termed a routine training launch.

The Air Force announced plans for the launch because, as a spokesman said: "We didn't want anyone in the area to see it go up and think it might have anything to do with the Cuban situation."

Inspection Of Vessel Carried Out

Cooperation Good, Party Aboard Says; Not Sure Of Cargo

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. Navy party boarded a Russian-chartered Lebanese freighter today, and reported more than two hours later that no offensive weapons material was aboard. The freighter, Marucla, was permitted to sail on for Havana with a cargo described as 12 trucks, sulphur, paper rolls, and parts for trucks.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Department of Defense said today the U.S. Navy had stopped, boarded and was inspecting the Soviet-chartered freighter Marucla, bound for Cuba.

This was the second announced intercept of a Soviet-bloc nation ship headed for Cuba in two days and the first reported boarding of a vessel in the U.S. arms blockade of Cuba.

Kennedy, Stevenson Confer On Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.N. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson flew to Washington for a meeting with President Kennedy today in advance of preliminary talks at the United Nations to determine whether negotiations are possible on the Cuban crisis.

Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense for public affairs, said the intercept was carried out by boarding parties from the destroyers Joseph P. Kennedy and Pierce.

Sylvester, at 10:45 a.m., said the boarding party was still aboard and that the first message from the scene read: "Party aboard Marucla at 6:50 a.m. Cooperation good. No difficulties expected."

Sylvester told a news conference that "until the boarding party returns after looking at the manifest, inspecting cargo and interrogating the personnel we cannot be sure of the composition of the cargo."

The Marucla is a Lebanese-flag ship, built in 1943 with a length of 441 feet, a beam of 57 feet and 27 foot draft. Sylvester said she sailed from Riga, in Communist-conquered Latvia on the Baltic Sea.

The boarding party was commanded by Lt. Cmdr. Dwight G. Osborne of East Paterson, N.J.,

General Test Of Sirens Set For Saturday

Because of the tense international situation, fire department sirens throughout the East Liverpool area are scheduled for a general test Saturday noon.

Arrangements had been made late this morning for the test in East Liverpool, Chester and the Liverpool Township stations at LaCroft and Dixonville. Plans were going ahead to include in the test the departments at Wellsville, Newell, Calcutta and Glenmoor.

A three - minute blast will be sounded to test the siren's readiness in event they are needed to signal an air raid warning.

The plan for the test originated with Mayor Bert H. Goodball, who instructed Electrician Fred Kane to try out East Liverpool's sirens to make certain they are in good operating order. From that point it grew to an area test when other departments learned of East Liverpool's plans.

East Liverpool has permanently - mounted sirens on Pennsylvania Ave. at the East End fire station, on the Diamond and at E. 5th St. and Broadway. When necessary, alerts are sounded in the North Side and Pleasant Heights areas by pulling the fire trucks in those two areas outside their stations and touching off the sirens.

The downtown signals, are switched on from Central Station when firemen go out on a run. The East End siren also is used on some occasions during a fire run.

Snow Glazes Area Roads In Wintry Blast

Some Parts Of Ohio Get Heavy Falls In Widespread Storm

More snow was forecast for the Tri-State District today after the "earliest winter" in years blanketed some parts of Columbiana County with 3½ inches.

Sub-freezing temperatures caused glazing of highways and State Highway Department cinderling crews were called out early today for the first time since last March.

Snow squalls may produce an accumulation of 2 to 4 inches of new snow in Northern Ohio, the State Weather Bureau said, but there will be only a few flurries tonight.

Edwin Copeland, U. S. weather observer at Millport, said he recorded 2½ inches of snow Thursday afternoon and another inch last night for the heaviest October fall in about 30 years.

And this was the first time in his records that the accumulation "stayed on the ground."

October snow usually melts and the average fall is only two-tenths of an inch. Previous October snows were one inch on the 28th in 1934 and 2 inches each on the 29th in 1952 and the 27th in 1957.

There was hardly more than a trace in the East Liverpool area but it whitened the hilltops and coated parked cars.

The low temperature of 24 degrees at Millport was not a record—it has dropped to 21 this month in previous years, Copeland said. The downtown had a less chilly 28 at 6 this morning.

The Ohio weatherman said it will be colder tonight with a low of 25 to 30. The day's high may range above 35 to 40. Temperatures will rise slowly Saturday.

The office of James DeLuca, county supervisor for the highway department, said all 16 crews with

Extra Hour Of Sleep Due In Time Change

The Tri-State area goes back to Eastern Standard Time Sunday, and there is one consolation for the chore—you'll get an extra hour's sleep.

The idea is to move clocks back an hour, to regain that precious 60 minutes lost when the hands were moved ahead last April with the start of Daylight Saving Time.

The time changes officially at 2 a. m. Sunday but most households will take care of it before retiring Saturday night.

Some parts of the nation reverted to slow time at the end of September but about two-thirds of the communities wait an extra month.

Grenade Kills 6, Injures 38 In Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) —A teen-age Vietnamese boy hurled a grenade into a crowd today at an aircraft exhibit in front of the Saigon City Hall, killing at least six Vietnamese and injuring 38.

Two of the dead were soldiers and two children. Six of the injured were in critical condition. Today was Republic Day, a national holiday, and more grenades were hurled—apparently by the Communist Viet Cong—as the day wore on.

One thrown at a U.S. officers' hotel did not explode.

Another exploded in a suburb near the airport, but no casualties were reported.

The youth responsible for the fatal blast was believed to be a member of a Viet Cong assassination group known as "Volunteers for Death." He reportedly threw the grenade into a helicopter on display but someone inside the aircraft threw it out.

After the blast the youth broke into a run. Dozens of police and bystanders jumped him and beat him severely before a police van hauled him away.

A second youth found carrying two grenades nearby also was arrested.

The blast occurred next to an AD6 fighter plane on display in front of City Hall. Nearby are the U.S. Information Agency building and a U.S. military officers hotel.

Vietnamese were packed into the mall, looking at the plane, various types of artillery, a tank and a helicopter. The crowds panicked, but police restored order quickly.

Police and soldiers patrolled the streets. Automobiles and pedestrians alike were barred from streets near the palace.

17 Points Set For Talks On Pottery Pact

Bedford, Mayer China Co. of Beaver Falls, Jackson Vitrified China Co. of Falls Creek, Pa., and Buffalo China, Inc., of Buffalo, N. Y.

The IBOP - chinaware contract also runs out Nov. 30. The negotiations will be held at the Sheraton - Cleveland Hotel.

Contract negotiations with four other chinaware firms are conducted on an individual basis. They are the Wallace China Co. of Huntington Park, Calif., McNichol China Co. of Clarksburg, W. Va., Technological Porcelain Co. of El Cerrito, Calif., and Flintridge China Co. of Pasadena, Calif.

Here's the text of the USPA propositions for the conference beginning Tuesday.

1. New employees shall be hired on a 90-day probationary basis and during that time they shall have no seniority rights. If they are accepted and retained as regular employees after the 90-day probationary period, their seniority shall date back to the time of hiring. The company may, at its discretion, terminate any employee during his probationary period, which action shall not be subject to the grievance procedure.

2. An employee's seniority and employment with the company will terminate if he has not worked for the company for 12 consecutive months for any reason except that if the failure to work such 12 consecutive months is due to an occupational injury incurred during the course of his employment with the company.

3. If an employee's rate of pay is increased because of some special condition or added responsibility, when that special condition or added responsibility ceases the employee's rate of pay shall be reduced by the amount of the increase.

4. In clause No. 5 of the section entitled Health and Welfare Plan of the supplement dated June 10, 1958, the words "receiving last pay check" shall be deleted and replaced by the words "last day worked."

5. Clause No. 13 of the 1960 agreement shall be deleted.

6. It is the resolute position of the members of the USPA that, in order for their employees' pay rates and fringe benefits to be continued as specified in the 1960 agreement, management must be free to make such changes in work assignments, procedures and methods of production as they decide are required for efficient operation and to make and enforce such work rules as they deem necessary to carry out these changes, provided the changes are not detrimental to the safety and health of the employees.

Further, when operations presently performed by workmen in different job classifications are combined, the rate of pay for the combined operation will be subjected to negotiation and appeal under the grievance procedure in the contract. When work is reduced by the combining of operations presently performed by workmen in different job classifications to the extent that lay-offs are required, and if the employer has no other work available for an employee laid off under these conditions, he will be compensated by his employer during the period of his unemployment up to a maximum period of six 40-hour weeks at one half of his hourly rate or one half of his piece work average hourly earnings.

The IBOP propositions follow:

1. That manufacturers supply all equipment, tools, sponges, clothes and material pertaining to making and handling of their products.

2. That we have an improved vacation plan.

3. That we have an improved seniority.

4. The holiday pay system shall be revised to include: (a) two more paid holidays; (b) male and female help to be paid same holiday rate of pay.

5. That we be granted a substantial wage increase.

6. That we demand a pension plan based comparably with pension plans now jointly effective in national industry.

7. That our welfare plan be improved. Welfare shall be paid fully by the company and shall include the family plan with more expansive benefits.

8. That all shift workers receive 15 cents per hour additional pay for hours worked on the 3 p.m. to 11 p.m. shift and 25 cents per hour additional for hours worked from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m.

9. That all inequities that are in warehouse labor, warehousemen, hot press girls, warehousewomen, maintenance men, kilndrawers and dippers or any other that may arise be taken up at wage conference and a substantial increase in wages be paid to all hourly workers.

10. Any work in excess of 8 hours in any 24-hour period shall be paid at the rate of time and one half. But this shall not apply when done at the request of and for the convenience of an employee.

11. That under seniority all employees that the company fails to call back to work at their proper time shall be paid for all the time they have lost.

Cases Ask Probation

LISBON — Two Columbiana County men changed their pleas Thursday in Common Pleas Court on charges of second degree manslaughter involving traffic accidents and requested probation.

Wayne L. Hillyer, 35, of Hanoverton was indicted by the April Grand Jury for the death of Earl McIntosh, 43, of New Garden, who was killed as he sat in the Midway Tavern in Hanoverton. Hillyer's car went out of control and crashed into the side of the tavern Jan. 13.

Ward L. Greasel, 31, of Lisbon was indicted by the September Grand Jury in the deaths of his wife, Katherine, 30, and daughter, Susan Marie, 2, on Route 45 between Salem and Lisbon, May 19.

Wrecked Car Found, Negley Youth Sought

An auto owned by a Negley area family and believed operated by a youth who resided with the family was found wrecked at the bottom of a hill in Ohioville Borough near Route 68 Thursday afternoon.

The 1958 auto owned by John C. Burns of Negley R. D. 1 was discovered about 3 p.m. at the bottom of Wilson Hill Rd., Police Chief Bernard Zlatovich said.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon received a report from the family yesterday that the car was missing and that a 16-year-old youth, a ward of Columbiana County residing with the Burns family, may have taken the auto.

Living Cost Rise Biggest In 4 Years

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cost of living climbed six-tenths of one per cent in September, the largest increase in more than four years.

The increase was due primarily to a jump in meat prices following a withholding action by farmers in Midwestern areas who refused to send meat animals to market.

The Labor Department's consumer price index had held steady during August at the record level set in July. But the September index rose to 106.1 per cent of the 1957-59 average.

Ewan Clague, commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said the major part of the rise was due to temporary or seasonal factors.

He cited the farmers' withholding of livestock from market and seasonal increases in the prices of eggs and clothing.

Clague said the meat situation had changed by mid-October, with wholesale prices dropping to about their August level and retail prices being reduced by about half the September increase.

Clague said it was too early to tell whether the Cuban crisis will have any effect upon the cost of living. However, he added, there is no reason why it should, because there are no shortages in the United States. Instead, he said, there is oversupply in almost all areas.

and Lt. Cmdr. Kenneth C. Reynolds of Coronado, Calif. Osborn executive officer of the Pierce, and Reynolds executive officer of the Kennedy.

The Pierce was skipped by Cmdr. James W. Foust of Greensburg, Pa., and the Kennedy by Cmdr. Nicholas M. Mikhalevsky of Staten Island, N.Y.

The first ship to be intercepted was the Soviet tanker Bucharest but she was not boarded and was allowed to proceed for Cuba after the Navy had checked her hatch work from afar to determine that she was a legitimate tanker and that her trim in the water indicated that she was fully loaded with fuel.

Sylvester gave this chronology of the boarding operation:

At 6:24 a. m., EST, the commanders of the two ships ordered boarding parties away. The Kennedy lowered its whaleboat at 6:29. At 6:32, the Marula lowered a Jacob's ladder for the boarding party.

At 6:46, the party was alongside and boarding, and at 6:50 the party was aboard.

There was a possibility that still another ship had been intercepted and allowed to pass on to Cuba. The Cuban radio reported the arrival early today at Havana of a ship, the name of which sounded like Vinitza, and described it as the first Soviet vessel to "pass the imperialist blockade."

The broadcast said the ship had been intercepted but not searched.

The ship the Pentagon said was intercepted was tanker named the Bucharest, which was allowed to proceed to Cuba. There was no immediate comment in Washington on the Vinitza.

The Defense Department announced Thursday that at least a dozen Soviet vessels had turned back "presumably because they might have been carrying offensive materials."

This apparently left about 13 Communist cargo-type ships still on course toward Red Cuba. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara had said just after President Kennedy ordered the blockade into effect that an estimated 25 Communist vessels were moving toward Cuba.

"Most of the ships the Navy is interested in have turned around," one government official said.

It was indicated that among the dozen Red ships diverted from Cuba was one identified by informed authorities as the Poltava.

Three days ago, the Navy was reported keeping an especially close aerial watch on this big, modern Soviet ship which experts said is rigged to carry missiles.

Assistant Secretary of Defense Arthur Sylvester told reporters late Thursday, "I don't have any idea" what direction the dozen ships were traveling after altering course away from Cuba.

Informed authorities said they believed the ships were steaming back toward Europe.

Sylvester said the vessels are being kept under surveillance, but he did not indicate how far or how long they would be trailed by patrol planes.

The government made it clear Thursday that the quarantine blockade will continue, despite any diplomatic discussions that may take place with Moscow over the issue of Red arms supplies to Fidel Castro's Cuba.

Sylvester said, "We have no way of knowing" what is in the Soviet ships still headed for Cuba. Obviously, the quarantine alone will establish that.

"Furthermore, on Cuba itself the missile site work is progressing at the same rapid rate and you will recall that the President in his proclamation said that the ultimate objective was the removal of those missile sites," he added.

Sylvester indicated that U.S. planes had continued taking photographs of the sites since the blockade was invoked. "There has been constant surveillance," he said.

The first Soviet vessel to pass the blockade was the tanker Bucharest that a U.S. Navy sentinel let through, satisfied that it was carrying only oil. Petroleum products are not on the list of materials prohibited by this country from entry into Cuba.

The Bucharest was not boarded, Sylvester said, but "there was an exchange" between the U.S. skipper and the master of the tanker. He declined to say whether the Soviet and U.S. ship commanders communicated by radio or by some other method.

The name and type of the blockading ship which intercepted the Bucharest were not disclosed.

"The tanker had been under surveillance for an extended period," Sylvester said.

Reporters asked whether it was possible that the Bucharest might have been carrying missile propellants or chemical compounds which could be used to make missile fuel.

Sylvester said he did not think this was possible.

in Cuba if the three nations agree to meet at the negotiating table. Thant had proposed a cooling-off period of two or three weeks for negotiations during which the United States would suspend its blockade and the Soviet Union would halt arms shipments to Cuba.

Kennedy's reply, read by Stevenson to the Security Council Thursday, avoided any mention of suspension of the blockade. But White House sources made plain that the quarantine would continue for the time being. They said the U.S. government still insists on the removal of nuclear-capable missiles from Cuba.

Khrushchev accepted Thant's appeal but his agreement to halt arms shipments to Cuba was conditional on U.S. suspension of the blockade.

The Security Council agreed Thursday night to suspend debate indefinitely on the explosive issue pending the talks. During a stormy session, Stevenson and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin accused each other of lying and trickery.

At one point, Stevenson challenged Zorin to give an immediate answer whether the Soviet Union had put medium and intermediate range missiles in Cuba. When Zorin, October president of the council, told him he would have to wait until the proper time for his reply, Stevenson retorted: "I am ready to wait until hell freezes over."

The exchange arose from Zorin's complaint that Kennedy did not inform Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko in their talks in Washington last week that the United States had proof of offensive Soviet weapons in Cuba.

"I'll tell you why your foreign minister was not informed," Stevenson retorted, his voice shaking with anger. "Because we were assembling the evidence. We wanted to see how far a Soviet official would go in perjury."

Later, stung by a jibe of Zorin's that the United States had toned down its position on Cuba because it lacked proof, Stevenson asked for the floor.

"We have the proof and will show it to you," he said. "And let me say something else: these weapons must be taken out of Cuba."

Stevenson then displayed aerial photographs of what he said were four missile bases and one jet airfield built by the Soviet Union in Cuba.

Zorin craned his neck for a glimpse at the pictures. Then he looked fixedly away while the large crowd in the council chamber stared at the exhibits.

Informants in Washington said the belief is growing there that the Soviets set up the bases to outflank the United States before provoking a showdown over Berlin by the end of the year.

They said Khrushchev apparently wanted the missiles on the Cuban launching pads as blackmail before confronting Kennedy with a demand for a Berlin settlement on his terms.

The Allies increased their alert in Germany. A British battalion on training maneuvers in West Germany returned to Berlin a week ahead of schedule because of the Cuban crisis. The West German Defense Ministry ordered all military personnel on duty to remain within 20 miles of their bases.

Canada placed the Royal Air Force Air Defense Command on the same alert status as U.S. interceptors of the North American Air Defense Command.

"We intend to support the United States and our other allies in this situation," Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker told an applauding House of Commons. He said Soviet missiles and bombers in Cuba pose "a direct and immediate menace" to Canada.

Leaders of the major opposition Liberal and Social Credit parties supported the U.S. position. But the leftist New Democratic party said the blockade decision violated consultation provisions of the North Atlantic treaty.

Press reports in Havana said Cuba is mobilized completely, with regulars, militiamen and teen-age students guarding the coast against invasion.

These reports said citizens of 22 foreign nations, in Cuba are forming a militia unit to "perform any task considered necessary." Among them were Soviet technicians and nationals from Algeria, Ethiopia, West Germany, Senegal, South Africa and Viet Nam and a number from Latin-American countries.

As has Prime Minister Fidel Castro, Cuban Communist leader Blas Roca declared the Soviet arms buildup in Cuba will continue. He told an anti-American rally in East Berlin "we have obtained arms from the Soviet Union and we expect to get more" but added, "We are willing to discuss" the problem.

A group of Latin-American newspaper editors and Cuban exiles in Santiago, Chile, issued a statement saying thousands of persons opposed to Castro's regime have been arrested in a reign of terror in the past three days in Cuba. They claimed the reports came direct from Cuba.

A demonstration against the U.S. blockade cropped up in Philadelphia, where Socialist leader Norman Thomas joined more than 200 pickets at City Hall.

Frank Lausche For Senator

Frank J. Lausche is the political enigma of our generation. He is a Democrat, seeks office as a Democrat, is elected by Republicans and votes as an independent.

The five-time governor of Ohio is seeking his second term in the United States Senate and, barring an upset that at this moment is completely unexpected, he will be elected over his Republican opponent, John Marshall Briley of Toledo.

Mr. Briley is an able businessman who heeded the exhortations of people in his economic strata to storm the political ramparts. He has worked at it diligently and with dedication. He has campaigned with the enthusiasm and optimism of a man with a mission.

In short, he has made a good case for himself.

HE MAY EVEN have ignited the imagination of voters to an appreciation of his qualifications, which include all the skills a good senator needs, but he has not, in our judgment, sold the people that he should be elected at the cost of Sen. Lausche's defeat.

As Mr. Briley has so ably pointed out, Sen. Lausche has not been a particularly effective member of the upper house. Very little, if any, key legislation bears his name. Because of his voting record, most liberal Democratic senators frown on him and his Republican colleagues hesitate to embrace him because of his unpredictability.

But his voice has been heard with increasing frequency and effect on the floor of the Senate and his position on matters of transcending importance has, more often than not, been in tune with the temper of the American people.

IT OFTEN has been said of Sen. Lausche that everybody is against him but the voters. And in a large sense, this has been true. He exudes the strength of his convictions and never has permitted partisan or pressure group influence to dominate his thinking.

While he often is pilloried by the organization leaders of his own party and consistently has felt the whiplash of the hierarchy of organized labor, he has stood steadfast with a genius for holding the confidence of the rank-and-filer and a capacity for enhancing his strength through the force of his independence.

The Review feels this is not the time to terminate the long and distinguished public service of Sen. Lausche.

Another year and another occasion may well dawn for Mr. Briley. But this year and this occasion belong to the senior senator from Ohio.

Frank J. Lausche

Nehru, Menon Know It Now

The impulse to recall the gross errors of Prime Minister Nehru and V. K. Krishna should not be stronger than the impulse to remember they aren't the first modern statesmen to be fooled by Communist expansionists.

India is in danger. The Indian leaders know what skeptics said was true from the beginning—that Red China would invade India whenever it felt like going to war.

IT IS NOT the territory in the north-east boundary dispute that's important. No one wants it for habitation. But until Red China controls it, the march of communism into India's fertile valleys cannot begin.

Red China's intention of being the dominant power in Asia cannot be carried out. And as those who believe Red Russia and Red China must come into deadly competition for supremacy have been warning for a long time, the communists in China cannot hope to match their rivals in Russia.

It takes no special imagination to see why this conflict in Asia overshadows everything else in potential consequences. The bid is for ultimate mastery of the world's largest population mass — for ultimate mastery of the world.

IT WILL BE slow in developing. Chinese in the area have been moving in since 1954, preparing their offensive. From time to time the Chinese will offer to settle by negotiation. But square mile by square mile, mountain slope by mountain slope they will continue their encroachment until finally they have removed the obstacle to their planned penetration of the Indian subcontinent.

Everybody knows what is planned. Everybody knew it when it began to happen. Everybody, that is, but Nehru and Menon. They know it now, too.

President With His 'Irish Up'

Historians recording the blockade of Cuba will recall that President John Fitzgerald Kennedy came from Boston Irish stock.

Decades ago it was often said that Irish immigrants who came to this country landed at Boston, "a shillelagh was put in their hands and they became policemen."

Irishmen are not noted for their apathy but for their tempers.

Heads of state are also heads of diplomacy, defined as "the art and practice of conducting negotiations between nations."

Thus it is not surprising that the Russians eventually aroused the anger of President Kennedy, who in his relatively short time in office has already let fly with everything he had at other people he thought had crossed him. Considering the diplomatic history of the Russians, a clash was inevitable.

Give Them Time

It will cross a fevered mind in the Kremlin one day that for every new face the boys bring into camp they scare off a hundred.

Old-time "wobblies" used to tell discontented workers of the world to arise, they had nothing to lose but their chains. That was good psychology. Workers of the world wanted to arise. They wanted to lose their chains. They wanted to gain freedom.

But grandsons of the old "wobblies" now tell workers to form a line to get fitted for more chains. The psychology is terrible. It's getting worse every time Communists make another pass with the sickle or flatten another sucker with the hammer.

The latest upside-down triumph of these masterminds who three-sheet themselves as experts in stirring up little people is to scare off potential converts in Latin America.

They did it the same ham-handed way — by revealing they had bigger things on their minds than the little people. They stirred them up long enough to upset the former government and that was all they were good for.

It is tragically true that little people are "too damn dumb" to know what's happening to them, as one of our own boys is supposed to have said. But they are bright enough to understand it isn't anything good unless it puts food on the table and leaves them enough teeth to eat with.

What has happened in Cuba has disenchanted every Latin American about Communism.

What has happened in China has shown every Asiatic the only difference between the imperialist bully-boys who used to grind them down and the new breed is that the old-timers took everything and gave low wages while the new ones take everything and give a lecture.

Peasants who used to yearn to share wealth now are told they should be grateful for sharing poverty.

It adds up to one thing — that Communists can't convert people. They can subvert but they can't convert.

After Hungary, Communists were discredited in Europe.

After China, when it finally becomes known what really happened there, they will have no chance to fool Asiatics.

In North America, Communists always have been out of place, except for a time during the depression when anything seemed worth trying.

They can do nothing in Africa because preaching Marx Africans is like lecturing on existentialism to religious primitives.

And now in South America Communists stand revealed as part of an international power play that has nothing to do with filling bellies.

We anti-Communists keep hoping for their collapse. It won't happen. Communism is here to stay.

But it can't make converts. It can fool them. It can fool them.

And it cannot change its spots, or it will be in the same pickle as the Fabian socialists, whose crusade to change the world has no more zing than World Calendar Reform.

Give Communists enough time and they'll destroy themselves with their hammers and sickles.

The first time radar was used to detect the approach of enemy planes was during the Japanese raid on Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941. Unfortunately, although the oncoming planes were detected, they were assumed to be friendly and proper precautions were not taken.

The High Road

Reds Plan Latin American Violence

By Victor Riesel

Almost forgotten amid the tensions of Operation Blockade is the warning to Latin nations by President Kennedy to prepare themselves for street rioting. Victor Riesel, in a swift series of interviews here and by transcontinental telephone, learned why this warning went out Fidel Castro, operating a hemispheric network, has already exported Communist cadres. Here follows a description of what exists in Latin America.

UNITED NATIONS
Fidel Castro's cadres already have invaded most of Latin America. They have begun setting up a vast revolutionary labor apparatus capable of launching general strikes. They have heavily armed street riot squads ready for action. They have guerrilla camps hidden in wooded and mountain areas. They have bomb squads. They operate a spy school in Havana which regularly ships hundreds of Latin youths into Central and South America for dirty work, as assistant U.S. secretary of state, Edwin Martin, recently disclosed.

Castro's men infiltrate government and labor and cultural fronts by buying some of the leaders with bribes — not only of money, but perfumes, cigars, rum and special souvenirs. For all of this there is documented evidence.

IN HAVANA, Soviet specialists have given crash priority to a drive against legitimate unions throughout the Latin world. We have the word of U.S. Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz that the Russians have chosen Cuba as the base for the launching of a new continent-wide labor organization. With this they hope to destroy the old union movement, which is basically anti-Communist.

There is a letter to prove this. The missive was guided by special couriers to the leader of the Communist labor organizations in Chile. This letter was sent by none other than Moscow-trained Lazaro Pena, secretary general of the Cuban Confederation of Revolutionary Labor.

Wherever you stick a red pin into the map of Latin America you will jab a spot in which riot squads and bomb specialists are active — just as in the days of Joe Stalin. The word is that there

It resulted in a meeting of labor delegates from 22 countries in Santiago, Chile, called by "CLUTCH" — Central Union of Workers of Chile.

The delegates met Sept. 6-9. After waltzing through the routine attacks on the United States this special conference of Communist Latin labor organizations set up a coordinating committee. This will call an all-Latin labor constitutional conference in Havana during the summer of '63.

APPARENTLY Chile is being used by the Castro cadres as one of the key operating bases. The Cuban Embassy there has become a drop for distribution not only of literature, but of funds, insignias, gifts and documents containing revolutionary instructions.

Big crates containing such material were discovered by Chilean intelligence officers in the hold of the SS Federico Schwager. This vessel is practically on a shuttle run between Valparaiso, Chile, and Havana. Ordinarily it carries garlic and beans to Cuba. It returns with sugar — and mysterious crates assigned to the Cuban Embassy.

This operation is typical of the fanning out process of exportation of Castro's brand of Latin revolution.

One of the targets has been the Dominican Republic. A prime objective is to capture the Dominican labor movement, called FOUPSA Libre — the anti-Communist coalition of unions there. Recently it put on display large quantities of Communist literature inciting to riots and revolution.

THE LITERATURE came from Prague to Cuba, via the Russian Embassy in Switzerland. Then on to the Dominican Republic. However, some one in Cuba addressed the material — in error — to the anti-Communist FOUPSA, which exposed it.

In this part of the Caribbean there is also a Castro labor drive on Puerto Rico — and the Communists are boasting that there will be Puerto Rican representation at the Havana labor conference next summer.

Wherever you stick a red pin into the map of Latin America you will jab a spot in which riot squads and bomb specialists are active — just as in the days of Joe Stalin. The word is that there are over 200 special agents in the Recife section of Brazil.

REGULARLY they are reinforced by the "graduates" of the "dirty work" school which trains thousands of young Latin men and women in Havana.

It would take a truck to transport the load of documents the Venezuelans have on Communist activity there. Not only are there Castro bombers, and hidden revolutionary camps, but there is heavy infiltration in the unions of public employees and teachers.

In the Argentine, where the Communist unions work with the pro-Nazi Peronistas; in Brazil, where some of the labor leaders are getting up petitions warning President Kennedy not to visit; in Ecuador; in Colombia; in Bolivia; and in little Uruguay, once the gentlest of democratic nations; the Communists are training their people for general strikes — and the bloodiest of riots.

If these cadres are not blocked next, isolated, exposed and driven from power, the sea blockade will not really be effective.

Odd Facts

In 1900, when railroads and the horse were the chief means of transportation, the average traveler covered only about 500 miles a year. Today, with the airplane and family car, the average has risen to about 5,000 miles. Although part of the growth represents commuting, leisure travel has made large gains, too.

Every day more than 700,000 Americans buy at least one meal through vending machines, and for some 20 per cent of U. S. industrial plants, vending machines provide the only source of food for employees. In the other 80 per cent, they provide at least part of the daily menu.

Synthetic materials are rapidly gaining ascendancy over "the real thing." Today, dyes are about 99 per cent synthetic, and half the paint, half the rubber and about one-fifth of textiles — to say nothing of the more than a billion pounds of synthetic detergents now being used.

Next Step In Cuba

By David Lawrence

Bombing Of Missile Bases Anticipated

The United States cannot afford to wait indefinitely and may feel compelled as a matter of self-protection to bomb and destroy in the next few days all the missile bases in Cuba. A blockade alone is not sufficient.

There is no justification, it is felt in many quarters, for taking chances with the security of the American people. Fidel Castro is a reckless and irresponsible man. He has the weapons to threaten many cities in this country. The United States already has at hand near Cuba the means of dismantling those bases. Such action can be taken in self-defense. President Kennedy said in his speech last Monday night:

"We no longer live in a world where only the actual firing of weapons represents a sufficient challenge to a nation's security to constitute maximum peril. Nuclear weapons are so destructive and ballistic missiles are so swift, that any substantially increased possibility of their use or any sudden change in their deployment may well be regarded as a definite threat to peace. . . .

"I have directed the armed forces to prepare for any eventualities, and I trust that in the interest of both the Cuban people and the Soviet technicians at the sites, the hazards to all concerned of continuing this threat will be recognized."

If any bombing occurs, the lives of the Soviet technicians may be endangered. It would be better, therefore, to warn them to withdraw immediately.

THIS CALLS for an explicit ultimatum.

If, within a certain specified number of days all the missile sites are not voluntarily destroyed, the bombers of the U.S. Air Forces could be ordered to do the job. It would take less than an hour's time.

Is there evidence that nuclear bombs already have been shipped to Cuba? They could easily be hidden. They could not be photographed from the air. Definite information as to their presence in Cuba is not available, but Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said after the President's speech Monday night:

"Nuclear warheads are of such a size that it is extremely unlikely we would ever be able to observe them by the intelligence means open to us. I think it is almost inconceivable, however, that there would be missiles, as I have indicated, without accompanying warheads."

Nuclear bombs can, of course, be dropped from airplanes. The President on Monday night spoke of the intermediate-range ballistic missiles that could strike most of the major cities in the Western Hemisphere, and then declared:

"In addition, jet bombers, capable of carrying nuclear weapons, are now being uncrated and assembled in Cuba, while the necessary air bases are being prepared."

The Pentagon spokesman showed newsmen several aerial photographs of Soviet airplanes lined up on the edges of runways in Cuba. In response to a question whether the jet bombers were capable of carrying nuclear weapons, he answered in the affirmative.

So the United States now has indisputable evidence of missile sites being prepared and of jet bombers being assembled on Cuban territory. This makes it possible for the United States to be attacked at any moment.

THE CHARTER of the United Nations recognizes the right of any member to resist armed attack. This implies the right also to thwart an armed attack.

This could result in independent action by the United States with or without any of its Latin-American allies. Such steps are authorized by Article 51 of the U.N. Charter.

The Security Council can hardly take action in advance that would tie the hands of any country under attack or threatened with attack. The council can, of course, set up machinery for mediation or for the preservation of the status quo after hostilities have been commenced.

So the United States has a right to wipe out the missile bases and to destroy the bomber aircraft in Cuba, and can then cooperate with a commission of the United Nations to determine the responsibility for the original deposit of Soviet weapons and nuclear bombs in Cuba and the erection of missile bases equipped for offensive action.

THERE IS, however, little reason in logic for the United States to enter into a long palaver at the U.N. about the offensive or defensive nature of the Soviet missile bases in Cuba, when at any moment a reckless Castro can push a button and order an attack on the United States. The Soviet government will disclaim any responsibility for any offensive military action taken by Castro against the United States.

The situation cannot be allowed to drift. Action by the United States may be expected if Cuba doesn't voluntarily dismantle the bases immediately and allow observers from the U.N. to inspect and decide for themselves if the threat to peace has actually been removed.

Dr. Flesch Out Of Step

By Joseph Michalak

American Johnnys can, too, read, Dr. Flesch! In fact, fourth- and sixth-graders in Philadelphia read better than their counterparts in Wiesbaden, Germany.

This was the major finding of a research work reported in School and Society, the publication of the Society for the Advancement of Education. It was conducted by Dr. Ralph C. Preston, a professor of education at the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Preston said critics like Dr. Rudolf Flesch and Vice Admiral Hyman Rickover "believe that, if the methods of teaching reading . . . (were) modeled after the European methods, reading problems practically would disappear from American schools."

Yet his 1959 testing of 1,338 Philadelphians and 1,053 Wiesbadeners showed that:

1. The American children read faster in all four subgroups (fourth-grade boys, fourth-grade girls, sixth-grade boys and sixth grade girls).

2. Except for sixth grade boys, the reading comprehension of the Americans was "significantly higher."

3. German children showed a higher incidence of "retarded" and "severely retarded" on five of six comparisons yielding "significant" differences.

The findings were based on figures from one German and one American standardized test administered to each child.

Dr. Preston said that the data did not support Dr. Flesch on another count—that sex differences in reading are unique to the United States.

In both grades and on all tests, the scores of American girls exceeded those of American boys. In the German sample, the reverse was the case, except in reading speed in Grade 4.

On all tests, the incidence of retardation was greater among American boys than girls, which again was the reverse of the German results.

Dr. Preston noted that American superiority was lower for sixth grade than fourth grade girls and was nonexistent among boys, indicating that the differences may decline still further at more advanced grade levels.

He also emphasized that the controversy over whether Europeans or Americans read better would require considerably more data than that contained in this report.

Letter To Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

To those persons involved in the "cross burnings" recently at Wellsville, I extend this invitation.

The age of cross burnings is no longer significant with fear to minority groups. It is though symbolic of your ignorance to attempt to accomplish things barbarously.

Surely, you who were connected with this backward deed must be juveniles, even though it does not excuse you of this repulsive act. I would hate to think that adults of this caliber still exist and manifest such stupidity in the surrounding communities of this modern day.

Again, I extend this invitation to you to agglomerate and advance from your primitive world of yesteryear into the 20th century, "The Atomic Age."

$900 Of Fire Supplies To Be Purchased

Midland Council Thursday night authorized purchase of $900 of items for the volunteer fire department and referred to the Municipal Authority, a resident's complaint about a damaged wall and fence.

Councilman Joseph Hibbard, chairman of the fire department committee, made the motion for purchase of needed items, recommended by Fire Chief Vincent D'Itri.

They include coveralls, boots, booster line hose, hose connector, walkie-talkies and a dry chemical extinguisher.

Hibbard said that many of the items have been needed for months.

Tony Seelp, 327 Midland Ave., complained a wall and billboard fence on his property along Woodbine Ave. was damaged when a contractor put in a water line.

On motion of Councilman Raymond Presutti, Council instructed the Municipal Authority to take immediate action for repairs. The authority might be compensated by the contractor.

A letter from the Chamber of Commerce asked borough financial and labor help to erect stainless steel brackets to hold new Christmas decorations.

The request was referred for committee study and action.

The borough has paid for lighting the decorations in the past but under the new decorating plan the merchants would pay.

Presutti reported the Stanley Tree Co. of Beaver Falls will be in Midland Monday to replace about five dead trees, according to an agreement with the firm when new trees were planted last year.

Councilman Joseph D'Alesio suggested an inspection of the Civil Defense equipment in Midland in light of the Cuban crisis. It was reported that the equipment was checked about two weeks ago and a state representative inspects it every three months. Midland has a $35,000 200-bed emergency hospital stored.

Ocasek Rejected Candidacy For Education Post

AKRON (AP)—State Sen. Oliver Ocasek, Democratic candidate for Congress from Ohio's 14th District, has disclosed he rejected a White House proposal that he allow himself to be considered for the post as U.S. commissioner of education.

Making the disclosure Thursday, Ocasek said he turned down the offer Oct. 3 because "I made an agreement with the people here to run for Congress and I will carry out the agreement." He is opposing Republican incumbent William H. Ayres of Akron.

Ocasek also disclosed that he had been summoned to Washington for a conference next Monday with Anthony J. Celebrezze, secretary of health, education and welfare. The commissioner of education post, which pays $18,500 a year, is under Celebrezze's jurisdiction.

Ocasek said he did not plan to disclose the letter and rejection "until several long distance calls were made to me setting up the conference with the secretary." He would give no reason for his conference with Celebrezze, saying he could not discuss the meeting until after it was held.

Rhodes Keeps Plugging Plan To Heal Economy

CINCINNATI (AP)—State Auditor James A. Rhodes continued plugging his plans to heal Ohio's economic ailments as he toured Cincinnati wards Thursday night in his campaign for governor.

"The present administration has not devised a program to attract new industry into this state," he said.

Rhodes ridiculed the efforts of the present Department of Industrial and Economic Development, saying it is authorized by law to "only send out brochures, pamphlets and statistics."

The department, he said, "has wasted $1.5 million of your money and 3½ years of precious time." He said the industrial development authority he has in mind would create new jobs.

"When you elect a governor, you elect management," Rhodes declared. "And when you elect management, you elect leadership. We're not going to have a program until we change administrations in Columbus."

Middletown Slated For Armco Operation

PIQUA, Ohio (AP) — Armco Steel Corp. is discontinuing its tubing operation here and moving it to Middletown, Clyde Davies, vice president and general manager, reports.

Davies said Armco's limestone quarrying operations here will not be affected by the move, expected to be completed by spring. All personnel affected will be given an opportunity to work in the new tubing department in Middletown, Davies said.

He gave as reasons for the move: inadequate layout, excess cost of handling materials and difficulty of being competitive.

On Cuban Blockade Criticism And Wrangling Charges Fly At Briefings

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several Republicans registered criticism and Democrats countered with charges of political wrangling at secret briefings for congressmen and governors on the Cuban blockade.

"It was something of a rat race," said Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., after Thursday's session in New York City. But bipartisan support was noted, too, in this meeting and others in Fort Worth, Tex., Atlanta and Chicago. The sessions were conducted by Defense and State Department officials.

A note of controversy marked the fifth and last meeting in San Francisco today even before it got off the ground. Rep. Thomas M. Pelly, R-Wash., said he was passing up the session because "I will not expose myself to more State Department propaganda."

Some Scare Food Buying Is Reported

By The Associated Press

There is some scare food buying around the nation because of the Cuban crisis, but no concerted rush to strip shelves of canned goods and packaged staples, a survey showed today.

As one food chain executive in the Washington, D.C.-Maryland area put it, the best indication of a scare would be in purchases of case lots and his chain has had none of that beyond normal sales.

However, in Baltimore, Md., one woman bought $40 worth of canned goods and first-aid material, telling the cashier she was heading for the hills of West Virginia.

Grocers in Arizona reported a sharp upswing in sales of canned goods, baby food, canned milk, etc., but nowhere near the reported heavy buying in the Los Angeles area. In Los Angeles, city officials urged housewives to keep a two-week supply of food on hand.

From Des Moines, Iowa, the report is that food buying is back to normal after a two-day flurry.

In Ohio, officials of two chain stores in Cincinnati say sales are normal, with one official adding he saw "not even a trace of panic."

Civil defense authorities are giving this advice to householders:

Stock your basement with a two-week supply of canned goods and water; plan on a quart of water per person each day as adequate for drinking purposes only. Supplies should include a battery-powered radio, a first-aid kit, blankets and warm clothing.

A Republican conferee, Rep. Steven Derouian of New York, reported that "after the briefing this morning I think our whole intelligence setup needs a thorough overhauling. We know less than we should. We certainly don't have the information."

A conflicting view was expressed after the Chicago session by Rep. Henry S. Reuss, D-Wis. The briefing for senators, representatives and governors from 14 central states represented a "first class job of intelligence by American intelligence agencies," he said.

Before the meeting got under way Gov. Norman A. Erbe of Iowa, a Republican, commented: "We should have had a definitive plan on Cuba a year ago, and we wouldn't be having this trouble now."

After the Fort Worth session, which drew officials from seven states, Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas said the unanimous opinion was: "Let's don't negotiate and compromise. Let's finish this job."

Music Firm Sues City Man Over Copyright

Headquarters of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers at Cleveland said the Frank Music Corp., a publisher member of ASCAP, has filed suit in Federal District Court for copyright infringement against the Harmony Skateland, alleging its copyrighted songs were performed without authorization at the Minerva St. rink.

The songs involved in the suit are "Hernando's Hideaway," by Richard Adler and Jerry Ross, and "Baubles, Bangles and Beads," by Robert Wright and George Forrest, both published by Frank Music Corp.

In the complaint, Frank Music Corp. asks court to restrain the defendant from publicly performing the songs in the future and to award statutory damages, together with court costs and attorneys' fees.

James V. Flasco was named defendant in the suit, which was filed in the district court at Cleveland. Flasco could not be reached for comment.

CD Unit Sets Mock Drill

Plans for a mock emergency drill for the Industry Civil Defense unit were made by women of the Emergency Welfare Council at a meeting Wednesday night in the borough building.

The public is invited to participate in the drill to begin with the sounding of the siren at 7:30 p. m., Nov. 28, in the Industry fire hall, serving as a mass care center. Mrs. Jack M. Peck, welfare chief, said that temporary mass care accommodations will be practiced.

Area Girl Scouts, under the direction of Mrs. William Black, will assist.

The final CD home nursing class, sponsored by the Industry unit, will be held in the Midland High School gymnasium. Certificates will be received by those completing the 12-hour course.

Tentative plans were outlined for a swimming party for members and guests at the New Brighton YMCA.

"Usefulness of Home Nursing" was the topic presented by Mrs. Leroy Dunn and Mrs. Robert Loner. A discussion on "Emergency Waste Disposal" was presented by Mrs. Fred Summers directed the group in "Three Methods of Artificial Respiration."

Mrs. Max Williams will discuss "Emergency Dishwashing;" Mrs. Clarence Deem, "What To Do When the Signal Sounds," and Mrs. Paul Udon, "Poisoning By Mouth," at the drill meeting, if time permits.

Tables were decorated in a Halloween motif. Mrs. Alan Craft and Mrs. Robert Lewis were hostesses.

BACK YOUR SCHOOLS

The Board of Education is requesting the passage of the two levies upon the recommendation of the Citizens' Committee for Better Schools. This committee after a series of meetings in the Spring of 1962, recommended that the Board of Education should seek the passage of these two levies, if our schools are to attempt to keep pace with other school districts in maintaining a quality educational program.

VOTE FOR THESE 2 IMPORTANT LEVIES

3 MILLS THREE (3) MILLS - THIS IS A RENEWAL OF A LEVY WHICH HAS BEEN IN EFFECT FOR SEVERAL YEARS, AND REPRESENTS NO INCREASE IN TAXES. THIS LEVY YIELDS TO THE SCHOOLS, FOR OPERATING EXPENSES APPROXIMATELY $142,500.00. TO LOSE THIS INCOME WOULD, AS YOU KNOW, CRIPPLE THE OPERATION OF YOUR SCHOOLS.

2 MILLS TWO (2) MILLS - This is a new levy for operating costs and would be used to increase salaries of the employees of the Board of Education.

The high for the group of cities was $614.80 per student and the low was $273.10. East Liverpool spent $296.25 per child, very few cities among the 65 had a lower expenditure per student.

THERE IS ONLY ONE SCHOOL DISTRICT IN COLUMBIANA COUNTY WITH A LOWER SCHOOL TAX RATE THAN EAST LIVERPOOL, AS THE FOLLOWING TABLE SHOWS:

Salem	29.00 mills

Skid Mishaps Follow Snow

Roads covered by snow and ice resulted in the season's first rash of skidding mishaps in the district Thursday night and this morning, area police and Ohio Highway Patrolmen reported.

A minor mishap occurred in Chester today and a Salem man was injured in another accident while highway patrolmen at the Lisbon post were investigating two more mishaps in the northern part of Columbiana County.

The Lisbon post said the northern area had widespread hazardous conditions with ice and snow, but the southern part of the county was apparently less treacherous.

A car operated by William Brownfield, 23, of Lisbon skidded into the rear of another southbound auto operated by Mrs. Margaret Freeze, 42, of Salem on the 1st St. overhead bridge in Chester this morning at 9:20.

Chester Patrolman Frank Fetty said damage was minor. Mrs. Freeze's 1960 sedan skidded and stopped, and the 1956 sedan of Brownfield struck the rear bumper.

Clarence Votaw, 26, of Salem was treated at Alliance City Hospital after his truck skidded on an icy section of Route 62 near Westville about 5:20 a. m., went off the road and overturned. He suffered a bruised elbow. Officers cited him for traveling at a speed in excess of safe conditions.

A car driven by Walter Pietrasz, 44, of Cleveland skidded on Route 62 and struck a utility pole near Westville about 6:25 p. m. yesterday.

Two other Route 62 mishaps were being investigated late this morning by the patrol.

Average gasoline expenses for today's motorists per year—based on 10,000 miles of travel per year and gasoline costing 32 cents a gallon—are for the person driving a car which gets 10 miles per gallon, $320; for 12 miles per gallon, $267; for 18 miles per gallon, $178; for 20 miles per gallon, $160; for 25 miles per gallon, $128; and for 30 miles per gallon, $106.

30-Day Term Given Man In Traffic Case

A 20-year-old Wellsville man was sentenced to a 30-day County Jail term today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff when he admitted driving after his operator's permit had been suspended under the state's financial responsibility law.

Franklin L. Hubbard, 808 Washington Ave., was cited by the State Highway Patrol after his car plunged down a 50-foot embankment on Hibbits Mill Rd. Sunday night, injuring two 17-year-old girls who were passengers.

Hubbard confirmed the patrol's report that his operator's permit was suspended last March 30 and is not to be restored until March 30, 1964.

Queried by the judge why he drove when his license had been suspended, Hubbard replied: "I just wanted to."

Judge Chertoff said he had "no sympathy" for the defendant because he had admitted "a deliberate violation of the law."

"You knew you had no right to drive, but that did not deter you," he told Hubbard. "You flouted the law."

A relative who appeared in court with Hubbard told the judge the defendant's car was involved in a collision with another auto, damaging the bumper and a fender slightly. Hubbard offered to have the damage repaired, but the other motorist insisted on having a brand new bumper and fender, he said.

Meanwhile, James H. Timmons of Boring Ln. was fined $5 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a charge of making an illegal turn at E. 5th and Washington Sts. He was cited Thursday at 11:05 a. m., police said.

Weirton Couple Asks $135,000

NEW CUMBERLAND — Samuel and Patricia Spano of Weirton Thursday filed a $135,000 damage suit in Hancock County Circuit Court in connection with a traffic accident May 15 on Kings Creek Rd. north of Weirton.

Wesley E. Gowan of Steubenville was named defendant.

Spano contends Gowan operated his car in a reckless manner, causing the collision between the two vehicles, and asks $75,000 damages. Mrs. Spano asks $60,000 for injuries allegedly received in the crash. She was a passenger in her husband's car.

Helen Mustelli of Weirton also filed suit against Timothy Lindsay of Pittsburgh, asking $9,975. The plaintiff contends she was injured when struck by Lindsay's car June 29 in Weirton.

Leniency Is Granted To Salem Area Man

LISBON — A Salem area man was given another chance at probation at a hearing Thursday before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp.

Luther Griggs, 21, who was given five years probation Dec. 7, 1961, by Judge Sharp for stealing money from phone booth at the Memorial Building in Salem. He pleaded guilty after being indicted by the September Grand Jury in 1961.

Griggs was cited by Chief Probation Officer Richard Rose and was found guilty of violating four of his five terms of probation.

At the request of T. M. Griggs, his father, he was given another chance with several added restrictions. He must give up his driver's license and be home each night at 10 unless working.

2 Motorists Fined, Jailed

A city motorist and a West Point driver were fined and jailed on drunken driving charges Thursday by County Judge Herbert Arfman at East Palestine where 10 other area motorists were penalized on traffic charges.

Harry Whittenberger, 46, of 205 W. 7th St. and Edward L. Chuck, 44, of West Point were fined $100 to three days in jail for driving while intoxicated.

Others fined were Clyde H. Wilson, 59, of 321 Center St., $15, speeding; John W. Jones, 52, of 1008 May St., three days in jail and $50 fine for driving while under a license suspension; Carl McVay, 35, of 1012 Waterloo St., $15 for crossing a yellow line; James Fersch, 24, of 1700 Idaho Ave., $15 for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Announcing more endorsements for the Nov. 6 general election, the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters today asked its members to support two East Liverpool school levies and the reelection of Rep. Wayne L. Hays, 18th District congressman seeking a new term on the Democratic ticket.

The IBOP asked its members to vote for the two school levies "as progressive - thinking citizens." The ballot will list a new 2-mill levy and renewal of a 3-mill levy. In connection with the endorsement, the IBOP published in its weekly newspaper, the Potters Herald, data on the school financial condition furnished by the Citizens Committee for Better Schools.

County Judge Sets 'School' For Violators

EAST PALESTINE — A "traffic school" for motorists charged with violations in a number of area courts is planned at Lisbon, County Judge Herbert Arfman announced today.

The "traffic school" will be a development of the education program instituted by the judge with a safety movie for drivers penalized in his court.

Seventy-eight such drivers along with others totaling 179 — viewed a film, "Mechanized Death," here Thursday night. Drivers get a reduction in fines for attending the school.

Judge Arfman said the planned "traffic school" would consist of three sessions with emphasis on the attitudes of drivers rather than the technical aspects of driving.

Each session will have a lecture followed by a question-and-answer period and a movie on the subject.

The topics would include traffic laws as discussed by a policeman, lawyer or judge, responsibility concerning moral and financial responsibilities, and safe driving, dealing with major causes of accidents and how to avoid them.

of accidents and how to avoid them.

Judge Arfman said the county court judges, Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin, East Liverpool Municipal Court Judge Samuel Chertoff and several mayors have agreed to co-operate in the program.

It is expected penalized drivers would get a reduction in fines for attending the school.

The manna of the Israelites, mentioned in the Bible, is believed to have been a saccharine substance exuding from the bark of the tamarisk, when the surface was punctured by insects. This substance has a yellowish color and a honey-like odor.

WOULD YOU TRUST A MAIL ORDER DIAGNOSIS?

Of course you wouldn't. You realize how important it is to know your doctor and discuss your health problems with him face-to-face. It is equally important to know your pharmacist—to meet him face-to-face, as you do at this Pharmacy, and talk to him about dosage directions and other pertinent information. His personal interest in you cannot be duplicated by mail order "prescription factories."

Hancock County sheriff's deputies said today they have given Tri-State Area authorities a description of an auto stolen in a robbery early Thursday at Waterford Park.

The thief fled in a 1962 white two-door Ford sedan of Clifford Brafford of Hamilton after locking the owner's son, Gary F. Brafford, in the tack room of the race track.

The suspect also made off with the son's wallet containing $10. Deputies said the stolen auto has black wheels without hubcaps. It bears Ohio license 1203 MR, deputies said.

Snow

cinder trucks were sent out at 1 a. m. today when the melting snow began freezing.

The slippery condition was general throughout the county. This was the first cinder of the season. Winter is due officially Dec. 22.

In East Liverpool, the street department's hopper-type spreader was used to scatter ashes on slippery pavements shortly before 7 this morning.

The icy condition was not general, especially in the downtown area, but the truck made rounds that covered the Pleasant Heights area, Anderson Blvd., part of the St. Clair Ave. grade and other stretches found to be slippery.

Much heavier snow was reported elsewhere in Ohio from the wintry blasts that prevailed across broad areas in the eastern half of the nation.

Heavy snow has piled up in parts of northern Summit County, forcing some schools to close and creating a mammoth traffic tieup on the main route between Akron and Cleveland.

The snow measured 8 inches in Ghent, 15 miles northwest of Akron, 6 inches at Twinsburg and 5 inches in Independence. A snowfall of 4 inches was recorded in Chagrin Falls, while Bedford and Chardon reported 2 to 3 inches on the ground.

Schools in Newbury, Twinsburg and Independence were closed because of bad road conditions.

U.S. 21 from Ohio 18 outside of Akron north of Brecksville was blocked with an estimated 2,000 to 3,000 vehicles, according to Billy Thompson, Summit County sheriff's deputy.

He said five tractor-trailers had jack-knifed in one spot along the 25-mile long traffic tieup.

Deputies and highway patrolmen were attempting to unsnarl the tieup by rerouting traffic to Ohio 8. Additional salt and cinder crews were sent to the area.

Temperatures dropped into the teens in northern Midwest areas, were in the 20s southward into Kentucky and Missouri and dropped to near and below freezing in sections of the Deep South.

Northwesterly winds of gale force swept across the eastern Great Lakes, setting off snow storms along the eastern shores. The Weather Bureau reported police in southwestern Michigan said snow piled up to nearly a foot in Cassopolis, Mich.

2 See Demonstration Of Traffic Controls

Safety Service Director Robert Owen and Electrician Fred Kane were among representatives from seven Ohio cities who saw a demonstration of new traffic controls presented at Canton Thursday afternoon by the Eagle Signal Division of the E. W. Bliss Co.

The highlight was an explanation of a new master control system which allows traffic lights on several major arteries of a city to be supervised manually by a master control in a central location. Also shown was a new "modular vehicle actuated control unit" which regulates traffic lights at an intersection in proportion to the volume of traffic.

problems is time wasted forever. I don't see how the Republican platform-makers can look this problem in the face and keep on talking about running government for less money."

Rep. Wayne L. Hays of Flushing, 18th District congressman, who is also campaigning for reelection, discussed the Cuban crisis in brief remarks.

Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, county Democratic chairman, introduced Gov. DiSalle.

Charles Lewis was toastmaster. He is chairman of the Wellsville Democrat Central Committee, which sponsored the governor's appearance.

Among guests were Sen. Edmund Sargus, Lawrence Stacey, candidate for state representative; County Auditor Kenneth Bell, Commissioner Frank Wilson, and Judge Louis Tobin.

Hostesses were Dolly Brophy and Connie Drago. Mrs. Kay Drago, county Democrat chairman, was also present.

Hays, Lausche, DiSalle Due Cuban Briefing

Rep. Wayne L. Hays, accompanied by Sen. Frank J. Lausche and Gov. Michael DiSalle, took off from Wheeling Airport this morning for Washington and a briefing on the Cuban Crisis.

They were to meet with Roger Hilsman, chief of the Security and Intelligence Section of the State Department, in another of the series planned by President Kennedy to keep governors and legislators abreast of developments.

Rep. Hays was to go to the White House after the briefing and then hoped to return home tonight.

The three had attended the Democrat rally at Steubenville Thursday night, when the congressman received the notice to attend the briefing, according to Don Gosney, Columbiana County Democratic chairman.

Music

choirs and bands will participate in the National Anthem.

The High School Marching Band will play "Parade of the Charioteers 'Ben Hur'" (Rosza). The combined elementary choirs will sing "The River Medley" (folk song) and "The Happy Wonder" (Moeller).

Westgate Junior High orchestra will play "Pastorate and Hymn" (arr. Niehaus-Leidig) and "Three Gates of Gold" (arr. Frangkiser-Issac).

The combined seventh and eighth grade choirs will sing "Chiapanecas" (Mexican folksong) and "Green Grow the Lilacs" (traditional).

The combined ninth grade choirs will sing "Joshua" (spiritual) and "This Is My Country" (arr. Waring). The combined junior high bands will play "Independencia March Trio" (Hall) and El Capitán March Trio" (Sousa).

The Girls Choir of the high school will sing "I'll Walk With God" (Borkowsky) while the combined sophomore and concert choirs will sing selections from "The Music Man."

The Concert Choir will give "Turn Back O Man" (Holst) and the Festival Chorus "Jacobs Ladder" (arr. Wilson).

The Festival Chorus and band will join for "Battle Hymn of the Republic" (arr. Ringwald).

School officials said it is appropriate that the first music festival falls during a week devoted to the recognition of American education. All of the performance phases of the music program of the public schools with the exception of the Senior High Orchestra and vocal ensembles will be presented publicly for the first time. The other groups will appear in the Senior High Christmas concert.

The rehearsals were planned so that none of the groups participating heard the performance of the others. Therefore, the entire program will be fresh for all.

"The festival is one means of bringing to the parents a visible and audible demonstration of certain phases of the music education program in the schools," officials said.

15 At Discussion On Development

LISBON — Snowy weather cut attendance at the Columbiana County Agricultural Council's discussion of resources development for the county at St. George's Parish Hall Thursday night. Fifteen were present.

Duties of the regional planning committee picked by Atty. Donald Elliott of Rogers were discussed, with Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture, as temporary chairman.

Atty. Elliott told the group the 27-man group from 12 communities will confer on the needs for the county and will check on surrounding counties which have had a planning committee and will then set up plans for this county.

Everett Rogers, state leader on resources development at Ohio State University, arrived an hour late because of travel conditions, and discussed the various phases of possible economic development in the county, including the Federal Area Redevelopment Act, rural area development, the extended Public Works law and the Ohio Department of Industrial and Economic Development program.

He also discussed various phases of activities underway in a number of Ohio counties.

The Show Must Go On—But Which Show?

For the first few days following a national emergency, show business always looks embarrassingly like a heavily painted B-girl caught on the street after the sun has come up.

The contrast is most evident on TV. Soon after President Kennedy announced the Cuban blockade over NBC-TV, there was happy Bill Cullen gleefully parading prize loot before his drooling and giggly panel of contestants. Viewers must have been tempted to shout at the gal who won the ivory-toned station wagon, "Hey, sis, what're you gonna do, turn it into a tank?"

OF COURSE, Bill Cullen and NBC hadn't been invited to the White House for a Sunday briefing on Cuba. Even if they had what could they do about it? The show, as somebody once said, must go on.

CBS had Garry Moore prying secrets out of Janet Leigh the same night. Maybe we should have had him in Cuba? And over on ABC were Cheyenne Bodie and Rifleman Lucas McCain. With that pair protecting us, who's afraid of missile bases?

CBS finally pre-empted its "Stump the Stars" show to bring viewers a special on Cuba. Mickey Rooney was to be the guest on "Stump the Stars," which proves that when a fellow's luck is bad, it's all bad. Here he just goes through bankruptcy, and one of the first jobs Mickey gets is torpedoed by Castro.

NBC INTERRUPTED! Barbara Cook and Robert Goulet on "The Telephone Hour" once each to insert bulletins, but otherwise it was business as usual on both NBC and ABC until the prime-time sponsor money had been rung up in the cash register.

Sponsor commercials, incidentally, have an even more ludicrous look to them under such circumstances. The life insurance company which sponsored CBS' special on Cuba had one message in which a proud papa was pondering the future of his new baby son. Anybody could tell him that the kid was a cinch to have either an army uniform or no future in the future.

Nagging headaches, upset stomachs and "cool" Katy Winters suddenly take on a sort of inconsequential status when one realizes that he may be lucky to have a head that aches, a stomach that hurts and a body that perspires.

IN HOLLYWOOD, where nearly all of our TV escapism is manufactured, the producers frantically have been running around all week researching their shows (most are finished four or five weeks ahead of air dates) and trying to decide if anything should be deleted or added in view of the international crisis.

Certainly, they figure, this is no time to have some comic making funny jokes about "Cuba." The only man who might have gotten by with that was Bob Hope, who had to pre-tape his Wednesday night NBC show four weeks ago, because he's now in London making a movie.

That's why Bob's opening monologue was about Telstar and space ships. Usually he holds back on taping that portion of the show until just a day or two before air time. History caught up with Rapid Robert this trip.

PRODUCERS of new season TV shows have spent most of the week praying their show wouldn't be the one pre-empted by special news programs on the Cuba situation.

Pre-emption of a show this early in the new season can be fatal. It doesn't show up on the precious Nielsen rating charts that week, and if the viewers don't immediately rediscover the show the next week, its rating goes down and the sponsors begin to shop around for something else.

Ironically, too, there always is a group of staunch holdouts in this country who insist on the status quo, regardless. These are the people who call up a TV station and yell, "What happened to 'Wagon Train' tonight, and what's the idea of puttin' that Castro fellow on instead?"

According to one recent poll, people with high I.Q.'s dream much more than those with a lower degree of intelligence.

2 Youths Given Life In Pen In Burglary-Slaying

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Two Canton youths now have been sentenced to life in Ohio Penitentiary for their part in the burglary-slaying of a retired Alliance blacksmith. A third defendant awaits trial in the July 20 slaying.

Melvin Dale Schrader, 19, was sentenced Thursday by a three-judge court immediately after being found guilty of first-degree murder. The judges recommended that the youth's life be spared.

Schrader was one of a trio accused of bludgeoning to death Rudolph Giardini, 69, after breaking into the Alliance man's home. He also was sentenced on pleas of guilty to two charges of auto theft and one of breaking and entering. These sentences will run concurrently with his life term for the slaying.

Convicted and sentenced after a previous jury trial was Louis Rowlands, 20. Still awaiting trial is Lacey Copeland, 28.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Dr. Clifford G. Grulee, 82, one of the founders of the American Academy of Pediatrics in 1929, died Wednesday.

Information Available On 'A-Shelters'

Mrs. Edna Sweeney, secretary of the East Liverpool Civil Defense Council, said the Cuban crisis has resulted in a number of requests both by phone and in person for erecting fall-out shelters and stocking them with emergency supplies of food, water and other equipment.

The office has a large supply of the literature available for the asking, she said. The office is on the second floor of the municipal building, adjoining the Council Chamber.

Twenty-nine buildings in East Liverpool were designated for use as public shelters in a federally-financed engineering survey made several months ago. Contracts have been sent the property-owners, asking their consent to use the buildings. To date, only 13 of the contracts have been returned.

The federal CD organization would provide the food, water and other supplies for the shelters.

Mrs. Sweeney said she has maintained a supply of booklets on Civil Defense for many months on the main City Hall stairway. For months the demand was nil, but in the last two days she has been forced to replenish the supply three times, she said.

A similar demand for CD information developed in the Berlin crisis a year ago, but few shelters actually were built here.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Defenders Of West

Dear Ann: The letter from the big city female, who criticized the Montana women for going downtown in riding pants and Western wear, just burned me up. I'll bet both this gal and her husband go downtown in Bermuda shorts. No one around these parts would be caught dead in such apparel.

Levis, boots, Western shirts and suede jackets are as much in vogue in the West as skirts are out East. If I wore jeans in the lobby of the St. Regis Hotel in New York, she might have a legitimate complaint. But some of us gals ride a horse to town to attend to family business. We'd look pretty silly astride that horse in a fancy suit.

Western clothes are in the tradition of the West. If the ritzy lady from the East doesn't like what she sees in Montana, she ought to go back where the sights are more to her taste.—BILLINGS BABE.

Dear Babe: Thanks for defending the wonderful West. Similar cries of "Unfair" came from Texas, Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico and Wyoming. But the Montana gals screamed the loudest.

Brother Of Bride

Dear Ann: My husband's youngest sister was married last week.

He was invited to be in the wedding party. He was told to wear a tuxedo which he had to go out and rent. This cost him $12.50. The groom makes as much money as my husband. He doesn't have three children to support. He also didn't have to travel almost 300 miles to the wedding—nor did he have to buy a gift.

My husband was sure the groom or the bride would offer to pay for the rental of his tuxedo, but they did not. Now my husband thinks he ought to come right out and ask them for the money. Honestly, I just couldn't let him do it.

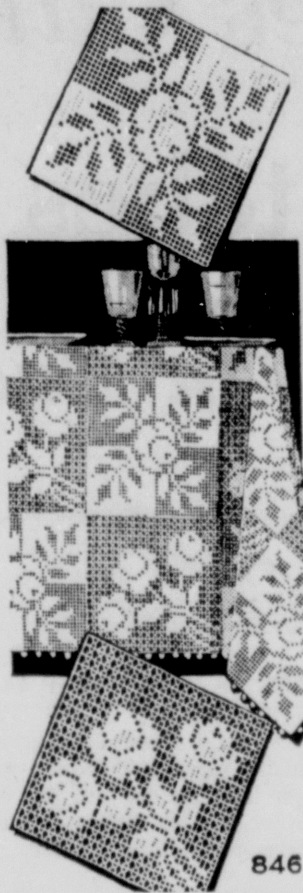

Please print this letter so other young bridal couples will know that when they ask people to be in their wedding party they should pay their expenses. Thank you.—REDDING, CALIF.

Dear Redding: This will come as a shock to you, but when people accept "the honor" of being in a wedding party they are supposed to pay their own expenses. This includes renting suits, travel, hotel and, yes—a gift.

It is customary for the groom to present each of his attendants with a remembrance, but that's all.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mobilization Plan Brought Up To Date

WASHINGTON (AP) — Home-front mobilization plans have been dusted off and brought up to date for use in event of a Soviet nuclear assault or a shooting war.

The Office of Emergency Planning said.

OEP Director Edward A. McDermott has been checking the readiness of all agencies with emergency responsibilities, including their preparedness to move into secret relocation centers in non-target areas, a spokesman said.

Some 40 agencies, including the White House, have designated key personnel to speed to 93 prearranged sites within a 300-mile range of Washington. Of these, more than 50 are manned continually.

The OEP said also that members of the 2,800-man "executive reserve" across the country, all with experience in government, have been reminded that they may be asked to drop their industry jobs and assume federal emergency posts.

They would become administrators of price, wage and rationing controls, rent ceilings, priorities and allocation of critical materials. Each of these executives pledged when he left Washington service to come back if and when an emergency call went out.

About 66 per cent of American families have at least one member who plays a musical instrument.

Ohio's Welfare Director Attacks Rhodes Proposal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The poor relief program proposed by James A. Rhodes, Republican gubernatorial candidate, will set welfare in Ohio back to the level of 1958, Mrs. Mary Gorman, state welfare director, predicts.

The member of Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's cabinet said Thursday:

"The Republican candidate talks of saving taxpayer's money, but he proposes legislative changes which would add thousands of people to the assistance rolls at a cost of millions of dollars. I am happy to observe that he has finally seen the light in one respect—he now is proposing, as though it were a new idea, legislation to permit Ohio to participate in the program of aid to dependent children of unemployed parents."

"Gov. DiSalle and I fought vigorously to have such legislation passed in the last General Assembly, but the Republican-controlled legislature defeated the bill," she said.

Alliance Falls, 28-8, To Toledo Devilbiss

TOLEDO—Once-beaten Toledo Devilbiss scored three touchdowns in the second half Thursday night in upsetting No. 1 ranked Alliance, 28-8.

The loss was the second in seven starts for the Aviators, ranked first in the current Associated Press poll. The victory was the sixth for Devilbiss, whose only loss was to unbeaten Toledo Central Catholic, ranked fifth in the AP poll.

Devilbiss completely dominated the game and had a 20-0 lead in the fourth quarter before Alliance cracked the scoring column on a three-yard run by Win Young.

Musuraca Has Best Day . . .

Nick Musuraca, a senior at Denison now, turned in his finest performance to date this season as he paced the Big Red to a 7-6 win over Mt. Union College last Saturday at Granville.

The 170-pound former all-stater from East Liverpool didn't score but his performance was measured in his ground gaining thrusts through the Mt. Union line which saw him pick up 107 yards in 21 carries.

The shots up the middle weren't short yardage for he showed gains of 17, 16, 13, 12 and 11 yards and had a 31-yard sprint in the second quarter nullified by a clipping penalty.

Nick has been the first-string fullback for Denison for four seasons and last year was the workhorse of the Big Red backfield carrying 153 times for 608 yards ranking third in the Ohio conference rushing figures.

Small World . . .

THIS IS a fishing story but does not concern the number of fish caught or the size. It is a tale about two East Liverpool sportsmen who were almost trapped in the wilds of Canada.

Two Toledo men related the story which was passed on to us by a Toledo Blade sports writer. It all happened in the remote Kipawa area of Quebec Province, north of North Bay, Ontario.

One Toledoan named George went fishing in Kipawa and discovered it was vast and almost trackless. He accepted the services of his camp operator, Aime Dorval, as guide on a fishing trip on a cold rainy night. Fishing was poor, but Dorval spotted an Ohio boat which seemed in distress. He checked it and found three men aboard with a disabled motor. Dorval was reluctant to tow the heavy boat, but finally took it in, weaving six long miles in pitch blackness in a remarkable towing feat. Once the rope broke and then he ran out of gas, but the disabled boat had an extra can aboard.

Dorval took the stricken craft to his own camp. Then came the meeting. George introduced himself, George was George Parent of the Toledo Blade Sunday department and John was John Hale of the Blade IBM department. The other Ohioans were from East Liverpool - Bob Broadbent of Locust St. and Ray Smith Jr., of Broadview Circle, John's brother-in-law.

Hale was formerly employed at the Homer Laughlin China Co., in IBM before going to Toledo several years ago.

Oh yes, there is an end to the story: George went home but the other men stayed at their camp and caught a snow and ice storm but very few fish.

Slim Pickings . . .

THE AVERAGE slipped somewhat last week when four games got away from us but eight were predicted correctly.

Tonight we are picking the Potters on the winning side over Bellaire St. John's. East Liverpool has been playing a lot of good clubs showing a better schedule than St. John's. We believe tonight will finally payoff for the locals. East Liverpool by a touchdown.

Up Midland way in an important battle for WPIAL honors, we are sticking with the Leopards but only by a one point advantage of New Brighton.

In others, ST. MARY'S by two touchdowns over Chester . . . NEW CUMBERLAND, a three touchdown edge on Mt. Pleasant . . . EAST PALESTINE by six points over Poland . . . LISBON, a 12 point choice over Leontonia . . . SALEM to top Boardman by a touchdown . . . NORTHWESTERN by five touchdowns over South Side.

We are reserving the big one for the last. We feel Louisville has more all around depth than Columbiana. The Clippers have a good first eleven but it looks like LOUISVILLE from here by at least a touchdown.

Saturday's picks show WEST BRANCH a touchdown over Beaver Local . . . UNITED by two TD's over Salineville . . . An improved CRESTVIEW team rates a touchdown over Western Reserve and a good STANTON LOCAL team by eight points over Brilliant.

Wellsville Notches 2nd, Tops JU, 34-20

Thompson Nets 2 On Muddy Field

Wellsville High's Tigers snapped a four-game losing streak with their greatest touchdown barrage of the season in turning back Jefferson Union, 34-20, on the muddy, snow-swept JU gridiron Thursday night.

The Tigers maintained their unbeaten status in the newly-organized Buckeye Border Conference by producing a victory under miserable playing conditions—mud, snow and freezing wind.

Surviving a fumbling start during which they lost possession three straight times, the Tigers spotted JU an early score then turned loose a strong running attack directed by Quarterback Mark Leyda to post an impressive victory.

THE VICTORY places Coach Ken Woods' Tigers in a highly-favorable position for Buckeye Border Conference honors. They lead the pack with wins over JU and Toronto, and now train their sights on the final two games of the season with Springfield and Beaver Local—league opponents. Each loop foe has lost at least once.

The Yellow Jackets opened the scoring after recovering Wellsville's third fumble of the first quarter at the JU 49. Quarterback Dave Marshall connected on a 51-yard scoring pass to end

Jack Tarr for the touchdown with half of the opening period elapsed. The Tigers repelled the rush for the conversion.

Wellsville retaliated in quick order, moving from their own 20 to the JU 37 in 11 plays. From there, halfback Dale Mobley broke loose for the distance to deadlock the score at 6-6. His run for the conversion was held short, with 1:10 left before halftime.

WELLSVILLE recovered a fumble at its own 42 after the kickoff and moved into scoring position behind runs of 15 and 20 yards by Mobley. Fullback Leo Pearson, who turned in a great game despite an arm injury, tallied from the two-yard line with minutes elapsed in the second period to hoist Wellsville ahead for good, 14-6. He also accounted for the conversion on a run.

After forcing JU to punt, Wellsville mounted another drive from its own 33 and moved goalward with Mobley, Pearson and halfback Alvin Thompson pounding over the yardage. Thompson went over from the one-yard line with 35 seconds left before halftime, giving Wellsville a 20-6 lead.

JU DROVE from its own 31 for a score after the second half kickoff, with the quarterback getting the touchdown on a one-yard sneak. Halfback Frank Marconi rushed for the conversion to cut Wellsville's lead to 20-14.

Pearson continued to churn for yardage in the mud during the third quarter, breaking away for 31 yards at one time to set Wellsville in scoring position again. Mobley tallied on a 15-yard run and Pearson rushed for the conversion to put the Tigers in front by 28-14.

JU got its final score with 3:10 left in the game, with Frank Marconi running three yards to cap a 65-yard drive. The run for the conversion was held short.

WELLSVILLE tacked on another touchdown late in the game behind Pearson's 17-yard run and another of 20 yards by Mobley. Thompson banged over from one-yard out, putting Wellsville in front by 34-20. Leyda, trying the only pass of the game for Wellsville, was rushed badly on the conversion attempt and was unsuccessful.

JU drove to the Tiger five-yard line in the closing minutes, but Wellsville end Tim Barborak intercepted a pass to end the threat.

Wellsville scored its second victory in eight games, while JU's record fell to 1-4.

Baker Doubtful Starter; Forzano, DiPasquale In Backfield

Injuries in the Steubenville Big Red game last week have brought about several changes and posed some question marks in the Potters' starting lineup tonight as Bellaire St. John's invades Patterson Field. Game time is 7:45.

Coach Bob Hedmond, who will be sending his Potters after their second win of the season against five setbacks, said junior Bob Forzano may get the starting nod at quarterback.

CHUCK Baker, who is East Liverpool's top scorer with four TD's, hasn't had any contact work this week in practice as the result of a bruised shoulder. He has been listed as a questionable starter.

Baker was injured in the Big Red game and didn't play much of the second half. Forzano turned out to be a very capable replacement for Baker at Steubenville and did so well at moving the team that he earned a 95 per cent grade for the contest, representing the highest mark scored by a Potter offensive player this season. His specialty is running the option play.

DEFENSIVELY, Dick Heddleston will spell Baker at a corner man post, while Forzano will replace Earl Olmstead if the Potter halfback isn't ready for action. Olmstead, besides having a slight ankle injury, has been battling a cold this week and missed two days of practice.

Another change in the starting backfield will show John DiPasquale, a junior, at right halfback, replacing Bob Mercer, who has been sidelined with a slight concussion also suffered against Big Red.

Dale Oliver, regular defensive tackle, is responding to treatments for pulled ligaments in his lower leg and may see some action, but Bill Hall, a 185-pound junior end, will probably start at Oliver's spot.

THE REMAINDER of the backfield will show Tom Kraft at left half alternating with Olmstead if he is ready to play. The fullback job will be shared between Bob Bowyer, a junior, and Len Oliver. Hedmond reported both boys have been running hard in practice this week.

Ron Echols, a linebacker, is getting over a hip injury and should be ready for tonight's encounter.

The remainder of the starting forward wall will show Randy Stover and Bud McElhaney at ends, with Hall sharing the time with McElhaney. Tom Graham and Bud Manley at tackles; Bob Parsons and Scott Musuraca at guards, and Bruce Burbick at center.

HEDMOND announced that Jim Wilson, a regular last season and a replacement for Musuraca this campaign, is lost for the remainder of the season with torn knee cartilage.

Looking at St. John's, Hedmond said "the main thing I am worried about are the different formations. When we played them (St. John's last year they used the "I" formation, the "T", slot T, short punt and split T".

The Irish bring a 3-2-1 record here, with victories over Bridgeport, Wheeling Linsly and Weirton Madonna. The tie was a scoreless deadlock with Bellaire Big Red.

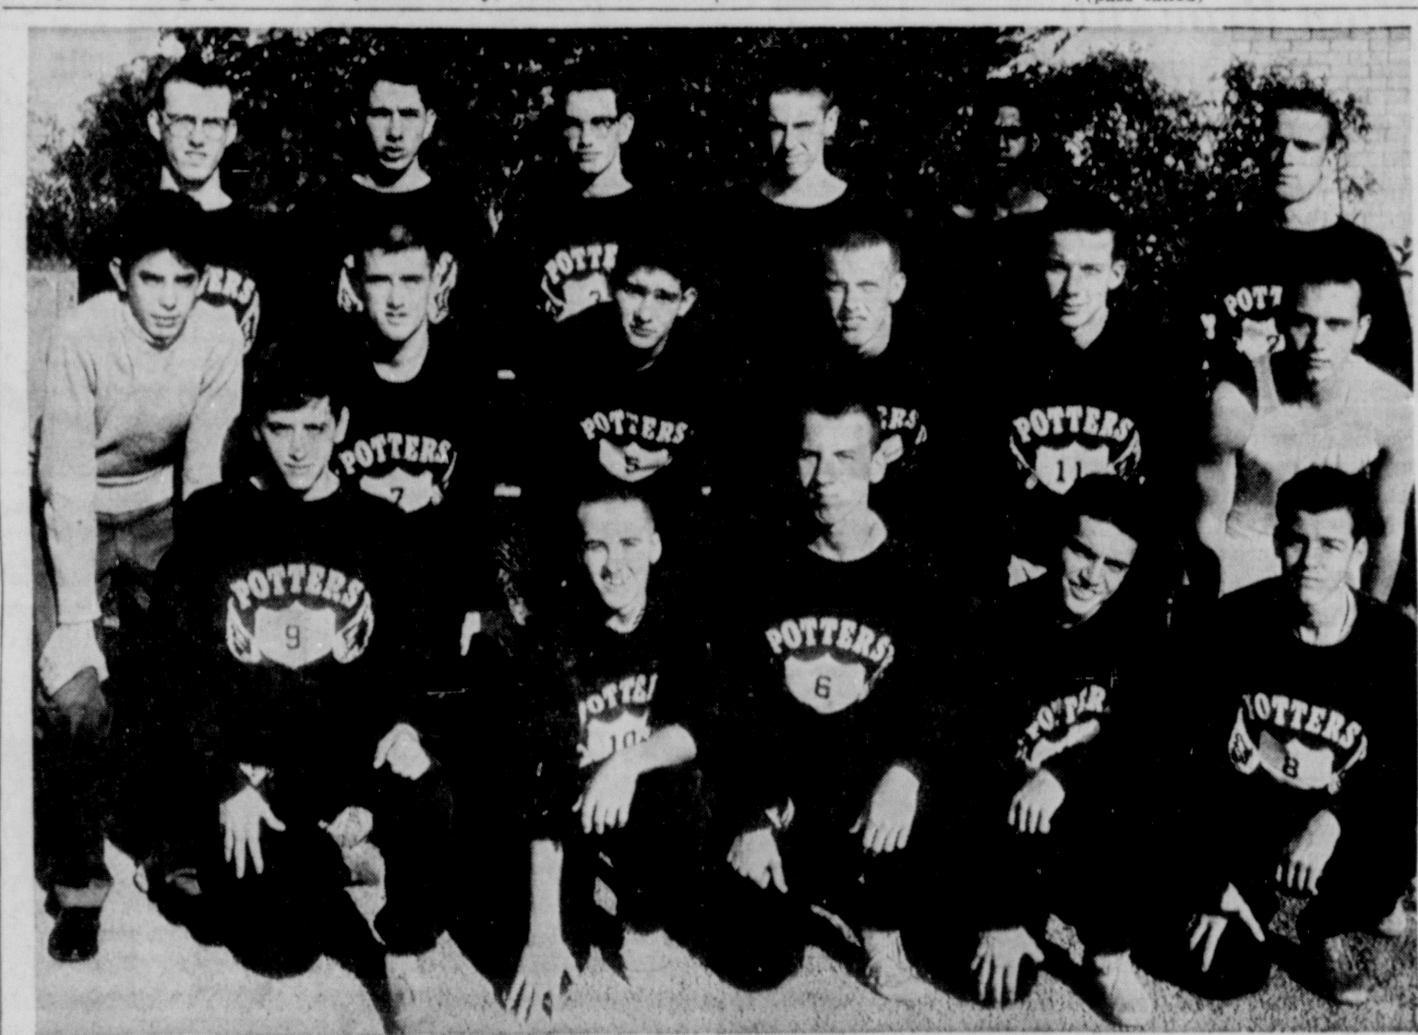

East Liverpool shows one victory in six starts, over New Philadelphia four weeks ago. The Potters will be out to halt a two-game losing streak tonight.

After tonight's battle the Potters will play on the road the next two Fridays, meeting Salem and Midland. Alliance, No. 1 in the state, will appear here in the final game Nov. 16.

Potter Runners Seek Second District Title

East Liverpool High's cross country team, a very successful outfit the last two seasons, will be on hand to defend its district title won in 1961, Saturday morning at St. Clairsville.

Coach Frank Chan's team ran against more competition this season than ever before at ELHS and came out with a record of defeating 52 teams while losing to 17. Last season, the Potters compiled a mark of 33-9-1.

Seven runners are permitted to run in the District meet and Chan plans to use Bruce McCoy, Roger Linville, Dick Deem, Curt Battestelli, Sherman Phelps, Ron Roush and Joe Ingram. If Ingram, who has been out with a medical disorder, isn't ready Joe Massey will be used.

The winner in the district meet will qualify for the state meet at Columbus Nov. 3. The Potters after winning the district title last year finished 15th in the state.

East Junior Blanked, 30-0 By Wellsville

Another Wellsville Junior High team completed an undefeated season when the young Tigers scored a 30-0 victory over East Junior High Thursday at Wellsville.

The victory gave Kyle Baker's squad a 6-0 record. The eighth grade team also owns a perfect mark.

Quick stepping Chris Thornton and Harry Wilson scored two touchdowns each with one of Thornton's a 50-yard dash. Bob Stevens tallied the other on a 10-yard sprint.

East Junior dropped its third game in five starts and faces Westgate its city rival next Thursday.

Wayne's Lyttle Tallies 3 TD's To Down Newell

A guy by the name of Lyttle proved to be the biggest man on the gridiron Thursday night when Wayne blanked the Newell Vikings, 27-0, at Newell.

The contest marked the final game for Coach Pete Horoszko's squad which finished the season with a 1-7 record.

Leon Lyttle scored three of Wayne's four touchdowns on speeds of 42, 25 and 3 yards. The speedy 150-pound back was the big reason for Wayne's 5-1-2 record this season.

Lyttle hit paydirt for the first two touchdowns in the first and second quarters, then teammate Rich West tallied a third period TD on a five-yard jaunt.

Newell's lone victory this campaign was over South Side.

Ohio Cage Coaches Seeking Renewal Of All-Star Tilt

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's high school basketball coaches are trying to resume their North-South all-star game next June.

Directors of the state association, here for today's annual clinic at Ohio State University, voted Thursday night to petition the NCAA again for permission to hold the all-senior affair. Both the NCAA and the Ohio High School Athletic Association declined to approve last June's game at Newark, and it was canceled.

The directors said they could not meet the 1962 criteria laid down by the NCAA, demanding at least 10 days of practice before the contest and outlawing booster clubs as sponsors. But Kentucky was permitted to hold a game with but five days of workouts, the mentors said, so they are ready to file another petition.

Tom Thatcher of Colonel Crawford High School at North Robinson (Crawford County) was elected ed president of the coaches at Thursday night's session. He succeeds Bill Satterlee of Akron South, who has held the job the last three years—the longest tenure of any president.

Other officers will be named today, with Paul Walker of Middletown going for his 13th straight year as secretary-treasurer.

Speakers at today's clinic sessions include Columbus Hines of New Lebanon Dixie and Marv McCollum of Hamilton Taft, coaches of the state's Class A and Class AA cage champions; Bob Feller, the former Cleveland Indian pitcher; coach John Bennington of St. Louis University, and the Ohio State staff.

The mentors have divided the state into four regions, and the president and vice presidents will be rotated through them each year in the annual elections.

State Commissioner W. J. McConnell said the state association was considering making a firm rule of its recommendation that basketball teams wear uniforms of which the shorts and trunks are the same color. Coaches said many teams — including Canton McKinley, Warren Harding, Niles McKinley and Springfield South—had ignored the request.

McConnell also urged that no basketball games be played the night before a school day; that all coaches attend at least one rules clinic; that the mentors adopt a code of ethics similar to the one approved by the football coaches, and that pre-season interscholastic scrimmages be limited to three or four.

Walker, coach of the famed Middies who have won more titles than any other team, said his boys had played no mid-week games in his 17 years at the helm.

Johnny Cabas of Salem said he saw nothing wrong with pre-season scrimmages—but agreed that it was out of line for teams to travel up to 200 miles to stage them. McConnell said his office had received many protests over the excessive travel and boys missing school for the no-count scrimmages.

Vanderbilt Grid Coach To Resign

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Art Guepe, who gave Vanderbilt its only bowl team, announced his resignation as head football coach and athletic director Thursday night. He had weathered 13 straight winless games and two years of alumni criticism.

The resignation is effective at the end of the season, Dec. 2, the day after Vanderbilt and Tennessee play here.

"Through good years and bad," said Chancellor Harvie Branscomb, "he remained steadfast in his conviction that the athletic program should never be allowed to jeopardize Vanderbilt's reputation for academic excellence."

Guepe made the announcement to the team and coaching staff after he saw the Commodores through a spirited night drill—a regular, nightly practice that he started this year—in preparation for their formidable encounter with the Ole Miss Rebels Saturday in Memphis.

Guepe said he wished to announce his resignation now in order to give his successor time to prepare for the upcoming recruiting season.

"I am most grateful for my 10 years at Vanderbilt," Guepe said. "Association with its excellent faculty and superior student body have been a rewarding experience."

"Until my successor is appointed, my staff and I will continue a vigorous recruitment program."

Guepe, a 25-year veteran of the coaching field, came to Vanderbilt from the University of Virginia in 1953. He succeeded William Edwards as coach and shortly after beating Auburn in the 1955 Gator Bowl, he was named to the athletic directorship.

At the beginning of this season, Guepe was ranked among the top 20 coaches in the country. His total record now stands at 87-67-9. His Vandy record is 37-50-7.

Westgaters Roll To 48-6 Win At Salem

Termed an all-out team effort by Coach Larry Foltz, the Westgate Junior High eleven came up with its biggest offensive punch of the season to smother Salem, 48-6, Thursday on a muddy gridiron at Salem.

Westgate tallied two touchdowns in the first and third periods and single TD's in the second and fourth quarters.

Clarence Crable and Bob Woods scored twice for the Wildcats while Chuck Winters fired two touchdown passes and scored a TD himself. The other six points were a 20-yard run by John Lowery.

Cable took TD passes of 25 and 15 yards while Woods scored on runs of 6 and 3 yards. Winters went over from six yards out.

Conversions were by Dick Lamborn and Bob Woods who added two each while Crable and Mike McVay tacked on one apiece.

The win pushes Westgate's mark to 3-2, with a showdown battle with East Junior next Thursday at Patterson Field. Kickoff is set for 4:30.

Ohio State Rates 3-Point Favorite

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State coach Woody Hayes, who spent last weekend badgering the officials, gets a chance Saturday to badger the Badgers.

Unbeaten Wisconsin, second in the Big Ten and fifth in the nation—and the country's No. 1 scoring aggregation with 158 points in four conquests—invades the Buckeyes lair.

The odds-makers, probably because the Badgers haven't beaten the Bucks here since World War I, have installed twice-beaten Ohio as a 3-point favorite.

One campus expert said: "Woody doesn't lose three in a row very often. He lost last Saturday to Northwestern. Then he lot to Big Ten Commissioner Bill Reid who ordered him to apologize for blasting the officials. That

Leahy Denies Reports Of Boxing Interests

DENVER (AP)—Frank Leahy, former Notre Dame football coach has denied published reports that heavyweight boxing champion Sonny Liston wants him to be his new manager.

"Sonny has very good advisers," Leahy said Thursday. "He's in very capable hands right now."

Liston's adviser, Jack Nilon, dismissed the story which appeared in the New Orleans Times-Picayune, as "just nothing."

"There's no connection," said Nilon in Philadelphia. "He met Leahy through me. Leahy is a friend of mine."

Cage Tickets To Remain Same At EL

The East Liverpool High School Athletic Board voted to keep basketball ticket prices the same for the 1962-63 season when the Board met Thursday night.

The current prices are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children. A basketball ticket sale will be launched about Nov. 5 and the Potters open the season Dec. 1 at Midland. The first home game is with Warren on Dec. 14.

A motion was passed to have a pep band at the basketball games. Five members voted for having the band while three were opposed.

The board approved taking movies of four basketball games at a cost of approximately $250. A discussion of purchasing a new scoreboard for Memorial Auditorium was tabled for a later date.

A transfer of duties was also noted with Merrill Hall, athletic director, now in charge of tickets while other duties have been assigned to Nate Lorah, who had served as faculty manager in charge of the sale of tickets.

Principal George Hargraves presided. The next meeting will be Nov. 8.

Bob Rosburg Blazes To Course Mark

COSTA MESA, Calif. (AP)—Former PGA champion Bob Rosburg swapped putters with movie badman Bob Wilke, then set a course record at Mesa Verde Country Club—a blistering 63.

Rosburg posted two nine-hole rounds of 33 and 30 in Thursday's first round of the $22,500 Orange County Open Championship. He finished three strokes under his closest competitor, Jerry Steel-smith. In a tie for third place were Gene Littler and George Bayer with 67s.

A week ago Rosburg was playing a filmed television match in Santiago, Chile, where he lost to the long-driving Argentine, Roberto De Vicenzo. Thursday he required only 23 putts for the 18 holes, and only 10 on the last nine holes. He offered to swap his putter with Wilke when they were playing in the pro-celebrity event that preceded this tournament. After he got Wilke's putter he hammered it onto a cement walk to get it into the shape he wanted it.

New York Picked To Top Redskins

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The National Football League hits the halfway point in its 1962 season Sunday, with the Green Bay Packers and Washington Redskins still unbeaten, and with the Los Angeles Rams winless.

This doesn't figure to be the case seven weeks from now when the season ends, but when is the lightning going to strike?

New York over Washington: Redskins have plenty of talent and desire but Giants too strong physically.

Green Bay over Baltimore: The Packers go for seventh straight. Packs defense once more may prove confusing to Colts' quarterback John Unitas.

Detroit over Chicago: Lions have flanker Terry Barr back and that helps Milt Plum's passing. Bears haven't re-established running game and Lions' big defensive line can concentrate on Billy Wade's passing.

St. Louis over Dallas: This week's upset, and it comes on heels of tongue lashing by Coach

Wally Lemm that team shows something or he goes.

Pittsburgh over Cleveland: The Steelers usually good for one victory over Browns each year and Bobby Layne, John Henry Johnson and big defense still fresh enough to do it.

Philadelphia over Minnesota: Sonny Jurgensen now has Hopalong Cassidy as another swift target and Eagles not as bad as 1-5 record indicates.

San Francisco over Los Angeles: Good chance for 49ers to get one in against West Coast rivals, who are missing two starting offensive linemen and hurting from injuries on defense.

AFL
Boston over Oakland: Patriots on title drive with Babe Parilli at reins and Raiders locked in doldrums of six-game losing string.

Denver over Buffalo: Broncos, too, are eyeing title and have full head of steam after last week's victory over Houston.

San Diego over New York: Titans can't cope with Chargers' strength defensively.

Dallas over Houston: The second battle of the Alamo, and the Texans — Dallas-type — have more artillery and shock troops.

Fullmer Hints Retirement Following Defeat By Tiger

WEST JORDAN, Utah (AP)—A Gene Fullmer-Dick Tiger rematch is still planned, but Fullmer, the former middleweight champion, is thinking about quitting the boxing game... but maybe not.

His father-in-law died of a heart attack suffered at ringside when Tiger won the World Boxing Association title with a unanimous 15-round decision Tuesday night in San Francisco.

When Gene returned home he was battered, bruised, grief stricken. He said he had serious doubts if he would ever fight again.

"Is it worth it?" he asked. "My father-in-law dies, perhaps from the excitement. My mother carries on so every fight and my wife has been having pains in her arm like a stroke."

"Is it worth all this to keep on fighting? Maybe I'm over the hill as a fighter and should quit."

But Gene said later, "It's too early to say right now that I'm retiring. Plenty of thoughts come to one's mind at a time like this."

Gene and Tiger are tentatively scheduled to fight for the title again Jan. 19 either in Bozeman, Mont., or Las Vegas, Nev.

Bruins Gain Moral Win

BOSTON (AP)—It's come to the point where a tie with unbeaten Detroit is a moral victory in the National Hockey League.

Boston rookie goalie Ed Johnston in his major league debut. Irv Spencer, who scored with 30 seconds left, and Coach Phil Watson were delighted when the Bruins deadlocked the Red Wings 3-3 Thursday night.

It was the only game scheduled.

"We were lucky to get a tie," sighed Watson afterward. "It sure helped to have that Gordie Howe off the ice."

The veteran Howe, who had scored his 504th NHL goal and assisted on another, had one second left on a penalty when Spencer jammed the puck under masked veteran Terry Sawchuk, the Detroit netminder who had yielded only six goals in five previous starts.

Felipe Alou led the San Francisco Giants in hitting last season with a .316 mark.

Texas, Alabama Should Waltz; Wildcats Warned

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Texas and Alabama, rated the nation's top two major college football teams, are expected to have a ball against lesser lights, but Northwestern's third-ranked Cinderella club has been cautioned against losing its glass slipper in Saturday's shindig with thrice-beaten Notre Dame.

While Texas tangles with winless Rice and Alabama takes on Tulsa, Northwestern will be trying to continue its steady climb toward the top against Notre Dame while looking ahead to next week's showdown struggle with Big Ten foe Wisconsin.

The unbeaten Wildcats, transformed into a gridiron power by sophomore Tommy (Gun) Myers, have been cautioned by Coach Ara Parseghian against a let-down in the contest at Evanston, Ill.

Alabama, holding the Southeastern Conference lead with a 4-0 record, takes time out for an expected breather against Tulsa, the Missouri Valley Conference pacesetter but a two-time loser against outside opposition.

Fourth-ranked Southern California moves into Illinois and is expected to hand the Illini their 15th consecutive defeat. Wisconsin's fifth-rated Badgers, boasting the country's best scoring record and an All-America candidate in end Pat Richter, tangles with Ohio State.

LSU, No. 6, hosts Southeastern

Conference opponent Florida for a night game, seventh-rated Mississippi meets SE foe Vanderbilt at Memphis in a night game. No. 8 Washington goes outside the Big Six to take on independent power Oregon, ninth-rated Arkansas play Hardin-Simmons under the lights at Little Rock and No. 10 Michigan State invades Indiana for a Big Ten clash.

In two top intersectional meetings, Penn State, trying to regain lost prestige in the East after a loss to Army, faces California and West Virginia travels to Oregon State.

Square Off In Davis Cup Play

MEXICO CITY (AP)—An almost-certain spot in the challenge round against Australia was at stake today as Mexico and Sweden squared off in the Davis Cup interzone tennis semifinals.

Lanky Jan-Erik Lundquist, the Swedish ace, was paired against erratic Antonio Palafox, the Mexican question mark, in the day's opener.

The second singles match pitted Sweden's No. 2 player, Ulf Schmidt, against Mexico's best, Rafael Osuna.

Captains of both teams agreed that the winner here was virtually assured of a shot at Australia in December.

With India, the eastern zone champ, depending almost solely on one player, Ramanathan Krishnan, the Indians are not considered a threat no matter which team wins here.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Overweight Can Begin In Childhood

Perhaps the majority of overweight adults would regain normal weight without following one of the many widely advertised and expensive programs if they would quit eating between meals. Most grownups who are between-meal eaters began to be such in their early childhood.

Dr. Garry Meyershood. But how hard it is to bring up children not to eat between meals if they constantly see their parents doing so! Begin with the very young child, if you don't want him to be worried about overweight when he reaches your present age.

DEMAND FEEDING, which pediatricians prefer to call permissive feeding, hit the nation several decades ago. Its slogan is to feed the baby whenever he seems to be hungry. Though the emphasis was on permissive feeding of the infant, parents tended to apply it to the tot or older child.

Many a child five to twelve will drink pop and eat snacks once or many times a day between meals. Some, indeed, seem to be gorging or crunching nearly all day. Such drinks and foods usually have considerable sugar in them.

The school child, on his way home, may stop for sweets daily at a soda fountain or sweet store. Many a child of school age must have a snack on arriving home from school and at bedtime.

Consider how many tots, after weaning from the bedtime bottle, must have candy or cookies usually after they are in bed, going to sleep with sugared materials on or between their teeth—horrible to the dentist.

Of course, a few mothers see that the youngster brushes his teeth or washes out his mouth after eating the bedtime snack, but his doing so is not easily enforced.

IF YOU ARE SURE your youngster should have a snack at bedtime, it would be better to let him have it before getting ready for bed and to require him to cleanse his teeth then. A better way is to omit the bedtime snack, even after it has been the practice. Far better still, never start this practice.

Since the bedtime snack and foods at other times of the day between meals generally mean some extra work and attention by the parent, it accustoms the child to dependency and to having whatever he wants right when he wants it.

As a rule, it may be easier to keep foods between meals from the child under four or five than from the school-age child. Of course, the parent may be able to forbid the older child to help himself from the supply of sweets and drink or may rarely have such on hand.

His buying them himself may be controlled through a limited, well-working, budgeted allowance.

My bulletins, "Allowances" and "Eating Problems: Their Prevention and Solution", may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Rep. Betts Back After Briefing On Cuban Situation

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP) — Rep.

Jack Betts, R-Ohio, returned to his home here Thursday night following a briefing in Chicago for congressmen and governors by the State Department on the Cuban crisis.

Betts said about 100 persons attended the meeting conducted by Thomas Hughes.

Betts said no policy statements were made and most of the briefing was on material he said he had read in newspapers.

He said the majority of the group, which came from the Great Lakes region, expressed concern on two subjects: (1) A Russian tanker loaded with oil was permitted to go through the U.S. blockade Thursday, and (2) how long the Cuban buildup has been going on.

He said Hughes pointed out that petroleum products were not on the list of items banned by the presidential proclamation establishing the blockade. On the other matter, Betts quoted Hughes as saying the Cubans do not have permanent launching pads built for long range missiles but they do have mobile launching facilities for shorter range weapons.

A disabled car being pushed by two men was involved in an unusual traffic mishap Thursday at 10:25 p. m., on St. Clair Ave. near E. 6th St., police reported.

Arthur McCune of the Wilk Hotel at Wellsville and a friend were pushing McCune's 1953 sedan on St. Clair when it scraped the 1961 two-door sedan of Marion Lee Perkins, 20, of the Westfield Rd., who had started to pull from a parking place, officers said.

McCune told police he was moving his disabled car to an off-street parking place. The mishap damaged the left front headlight of Perkins' car, police said.

Another mishap on Webber Way at Dresden Ave. Thursday at 1:33 p. m. involved a 1960 four-door sedan driven by Carl Albanese, 1629 Clark Ave., Wellsville, and a 1952 tractor-trailer operated by George F. Lutman of Genoa, Ohio, officers said.

Tone-Up Exercises Help Figure

If your muscles are scarcely up to holding the figure in anything like good posture, tone in the brace of girdle muscles will work wonders. But if you're in no shape to exercise, and the idea leaves you limp, just stretch out on the floor and relax.

The most restful position is lying on your back, with knees bent, soles of feet flat on floor. To "rest" the back, pull-up-and-in snugly with the lower abdominal muscles and press the small of your back flat against the floor. Hold the muscle contraction to a slow count of six. Release, contract and hold. Repeat five times.

A good big stretch helps take out the kinks. Stretch right leg down and right arm up and pull gently along right side. (Left knee is kept bent.)

MAKE THIS a long, smooth stretch. Release and stretch slowly, continuing about three times on right side, until you feel pleasantly stretched.

Stretching is wonderful since it brings a feeling of relaxation and increased well-being, and all for little or no effort.

Right knee bent: stretch left leg down, left arm up, and pull along the left side, smoothly. Stretching is a powerful circulation rouser, for the muscles act against each other.

From same position: right knee bent, raise left leg about 12 inches and lower to floor ever so slowly. Repeat, making sure to press small of back against floor as you lower leg.

Bend left knee and repeat exercise, slowly lowering right leg while contracting strongly with abdominal muscles. This easy exercise puts gimp back in girdle muscles.

If you do desk work and ache between your shoulders, try slipping a rolled-up towel under the shoulder blades as you lie on floor. This helps to stretch the shortened chest muscles and coaxes the shoulders back into line.

Finish with this exercise to liven up the vital organs:

PROP FEET up on a chair seat, arms down at sides. Then bring alternate knees to chest as both arms are swung up and back on floor overhead. . . s-t-r-e-t-c-h. Again pull up with lower abdominal muscles, flattening the small of the back to the floor.

Stretching is a natural, it's easy and relaxing. Yet the smooth muscle pull gently stimulates the circulation and helps bring you back to life.

Program Okayed For Hospitals

CINCINNATI (AP)—A program to coordinate planning for hospitals in a 14-county area has been approved by the southwest district of the Ohio Hospital Association.

Dr. Lloyd M. Larrick of Cincinnati, chairman of the district, said all regional planning would be strictly voluntary. He said a permanent committee, stressing wide community representation, will be set up soon to coordinate planning.

The program is to help hospitals know what other nearby hospitals are doing and so prevent duplicating facilities.

The 14-county region has been divided into four zones. Zone 1 consists of Hamilton, Clermont and Brown counties; Zone 2 — Highland and Adams; Zone 3 — Butler, Warren and Clinton; and Zone 4 — Montgomery, Greene, Miami, Preble, Darke and Shelby counties.

Many recipes specify exactly what herbs to use in a bouquet garnish. Those commonly called for are savory or thyme, bay leaves, parsley, celery leaves.

Legislative Amendment Waits West Virginia Vote

By HERE LITTLE
CHARLESTON — The proposed Legislative Amendment to the West Virginia Constitution would further restrict the business of 30-day, even-year sessions of the Legislature, which have threatened to get out of hand.

Voter approval of the amendment also would enable the legislators to vote themselves an allowance for their living expenses while in session, in addition to their $1,500-a-year salaries.

Still another provision would erase any doubt — if, indeed, there is any — that the Constitution intends to bar state employees from seats in the Legislature.

The Legislative Amendment is probably the least-discussed of the five constitutional amendments which will be at issue in the Nov. 6 election. On the ballot, it will appear last on the list of amendments.

Eight years ago the state's voters approved a constitutional amendment providing for 30-day sessions of the Legislature in the even-numbered years. These sessions are in addition to the 60-day general sessions held in the odd-numbered years. The 1954 amendment made an annual event of the Legislature.

The 1954 amendment restricts the 30-day sessions to consideration of the budget, items stated in a pre-session proclamation by the governor, and any other business approved for introduction by two-thirds votes in both houses.

Mainly, the idea was to put the state on an annual budget, replacing the previous unwieldy two-year budgets.

The even-year meetings were intended to be primarily budget sessions. Provision for additional business initiated by the governor or by concurrent resolution was meant for emergencies.

But four even-year sessions 1956, 1958, 1960 and 1962 have now been held and it hasn't worked out that way.

Gov. Barron and former Gov. Cecil H. Underwood before him were besieged with hundreds of requests to include non-budget business in their proclamations preceding 30-day sessions.

In his proclamation before the 1962 session Barron actually listed 30 items of business, a record for the short sessions. Some of the individual items were broad enough to permit a variety of bills on the particular subject.

The 1962 session decided things had gone far enough and voted to put the Legislative Amendment on the election ballot this year.

It would take away the governor's prerogative of proclaiming business for the 30-day sessions. They would be restricted to consideration of the budget bill, revenue measures and other business introduced on a two-thirds vote of both houses.

This, it is reasoned, will let the legislators give their main attention to the budget in even-year sessions and still leave room for action on genuine emergency matters.

Professor To Face Murder Charge In Slaying Of Wife

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—A charge of first-degree murder was scheduled to be filed today against Ohio University professor Gene Isaac Stees, whose wife's body was found in an oil drum in nearby Dow Lake.

Sheriff Harold Shields charges that the 30-year-old education professor has admitted he had beaten his pregnant wife, Helen, 30, with a crow bar Saturday. He said he put the body in a drum, sealed it and threw it into the lake.

Divers located the drum in the 160-acre lake east of here Thursday.

Stees, a powerfully built physical culture enthusiast, was arrested Tuesday.

Authorities here were alerted by Ashland police who said Mrs. Stees, estranged from her husband, had left her parents' home in Ashland to attend the Ohio-U-Miami football game last Saturday but had not been seen or heard from.

Stees was first arrested on a charge of cohabitation for allegedly living with another woman, whom he represented as his wife, at a farm home two miles south of nearby New Marshfield.

Shields said the only motive for the slaying so far is a comment by Stees that he and his wife argued over the children and the other woman.

The identity of the other woman was not disclosed. The sheriff said she was not involved in the slaying and had gone to Florida some time ago.

Affadavits Filed In Supreme Court In Divorce Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Affidavits from Walter U. Bolton, Newark attorney, and Richard C. Kibler, president of the Licking County Bar Association, have been filed in the Ohio Supreme Court in the case of Charles B. Holtzberry.

The county association charges that Holtzberry, who resigned as an attorney and Licking County Common Pleas Court judge, engineered a divorce from a fictitious husband of Marjorie Pickrell, a woman employee of Holtzberry who named him as the father of her child.

The affidavit by Kibler said he went to Holtzberry's home Sept. 29, and Holtzberry signed a prepared resignation as judge. Kibler said the resignation from the bench was overlooked at an earlier meeting at which time Holtzberry resigned as an attorney.

Holtzberry has contended the resignations were obtained under duress.

Bolton said in his affidavit that he acted as an attorney for a Marjorie Pickrell Brison in the divorce proceedings at the request of Holtzberry without knowledge of the circumstances.

Already filed with the Supreme Court are affidavits signed by members of committees of the county and the Ohio bar associations.

There has been no indication when the Supreme Court will act.

Junior Editors Quiz on RADIO

QUESTION: You turn a dial and get different radio stations. How is this?

ANSWER: A performer sings into a microphone at a broadcasting station. Her voice makes sound waves which move at 750 miles an hour, but the "mike" turns these into electric radio waves which are broadcast from the station's sending antenna at 186,282 miles a second. Your radio picks up these waves with its receiving antenna, which is usually built into the set. Radio waves have different "wave lengths." Each station is allowed to send out signals of only one wave length. Signals of many wave lengths crowd into your radio's "tuner." This tuner has sets of metal plates, some of which swing down between the others without touching. When the dial is turned so that a larger area of these plates are meshed together, the radio becomes tuned to the lower wave lengths coming in; with less meshing, to higher ones. Each adjustment tunes the radio to a different wave length, so that only one station's signals can come through and be converted back into sound.

FOR YOU TO DO: After tuning, the average house radio sends the signals through five tubes before they are ready to go to the loudspeaker and be changed into sound waves. See if you can find out the job each tube has to do.

Paula Hogan of Worcester, Mass., wins $10 for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Friday, Oct. 26, the 299th day of 1962. There are 66 days left in the year.
Today's highlight in history:
On this day in 1825, the Erie Canal was opened for traffic, connecting the waters of Lake Erie, at Buffalo with the waters of the Hudson at Albany, N. Y. The canal was 360 miles long and 40 feet wide.

On this date:
In 1774, the first Continental Congress adjourned in Philadelphia.
In 1869, the first steeplechase in the United States was staged at Jerome Park in New York's Westchester County.

In 1891, the Empire State express train made the trip from New York to Buffalo in eight hours, 42 minutes, over the New York Central System.
In 1915, actress Eva Le Gallienne made her American debut.
In 1945, the OPA announced it would soon lift price controls on 52 food items following the end of World War II.

Actor Jackie Coogan is 48. The Shah of Iran is 43.
Thought for today:
There is a harmony in autumn, and a lustre in its sky, which through the summer is not heard or seen—Shelley.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I have some rules to follow that will make housework a pleasure.

Two hands are always better than one — whether dusting, washing the stove or counter tops, or scrubbing floors. Putting a rag in each hand takes concentration but after you get the knack, you cut your cleaning time in half.

Twelve hands are better than two. This is especially helpful at meal time. Each person in the family has a specific responsibility according to age and disposition for getting the meal on the table and . . . cleaning up afterwards! Even a four year old can string beans, shell peas, put napkins on the table, sort and put away silverware and feed scraps to the pets. If both parents set the example of cooperation, the children do not find their chores burdensome.

Never stoop when you can stand — use a dustpan with a long handle, a "Heloise mat" to mop spills while still standing.

Never stand when you can sit . . . such as when preparing vegetables at the sink and ironing, paying bills and writing letters.

Never sit when you can lie down, such as talking on the phone and reading. This is the way I get my second wind.

Use the spare time you create and the skills you acquire in meeting the needs of others outside of your immediate family. It is both stimulating and relaxing to forget yourself for a change!

I can guarantee that these rules will go a long way towards making housekeeping the joy it ought to be.

MARNA WILLIAMS

I just have to get this in. We used to live in China. That's where I learned the art of shortcuts! The saying over there is, "Never run when you can walk, never walk when you can ride, never stand up when you can sit down, never sit down when you can lie down, never leave your eyes open when you can shut them, and why think if you can find some way not to!" Did you ever live in China?

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: A wonderful way to entertain children is to make puppets from paper bags. Just take plain paper lunch bag color or paint faces on one side, keeping the open end down while drawing the faces.

When the faces are made, stuff the bag with newspaper strips, and put a rubber band around the bottom of it. The child will be able to slip his finger up into the center of the bag to make the puppet talk and move!

Paper mache is another inexpensive fun craft for the children! The simplest method to make it that I have found is to make a base for your model with crumpled newspaper! Then cut strips of newspaper.

Soak these for a few minutes in a thick mixture of wall paper paste. It's cheap and can be bought at paint and wall paper stores for about a quarter. Then use the soaked strips of paper to form around the newspaper base until you have the desired shape. After this dries several days, paint with tempera.

I am sure that others have successful projects. Why not share them with us?

JOAN FLANERY

Hey there! Does anyone have some more ideas to keep kids busy on bad days? (Our bad day or theirs? Who cares?) If do . . . Joan has a great idea. Let's share! Write to Heloise in care of The Review, with your hints, ideas and problems. Letters do not have to be signed to appear in this column.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: Might I call to your reader's attention that hot food should not be put into the refrigerator. Food should always be completely cool before placing in the ice box for storage.

Hoover's Book About Reds Seen Appropriate Reading

"The danger which Communism presents to the world has not abated."

Certainly this comment from J. Edgar Hoover in his new book, "A Study of Communism," seems appropriate in the current Cuban crisis, according to Miss Frances Jones, librarian, who listed it among new books at the Carnegie Public Library.

In this sequel to "Master of Deceit," our FBI chief gives a summary history of Communism in certain troubled areas.

Regarding Cuba, he reports that the party was formally established there in 1925. Since 1944 it has been known as the Popular Socialist Party. But Castro waited until December 1961 to announce "that he was a Marxist Leninist and would remain one until he died."

This timely book was presented to the library through a family gift in memory of the late Col. Gabriel Von Ludmann, a refugee from Hungary.

In all of the fear of outright war which the American blockade of Cuba currently engenders, the basic scheme on which major Red victories have been achieved may be overlooked.

A former president of the party in this country, Joseph Kornfeder, and William R. Kintner write about "The New Frontier of War." These authors contend that there are many areas of vulnerability in the present Khrushchev regime on which the west should prey. . . "forbidden thinking," social contradictions (slave labor is now called "free labor") but actual circumstances are much the same as before and "discrediting of their economic system through showing what capitalism has accomplished."

Side-by-side with these volumes on the Red menace is a trio of books which typify American capitalism:

Raymond Moley has written a biography, "The American Century of John C. Lincoln," tale of how one electrical engineer with a capital of $200 organized a famous welding tool company, recorded 54 patents, and at 78 was still going so strong that he acquired the Bagdad coppers properties which he turned into a highly productive enterprise.

"What About Common Stocks," by John A. Straley, and the potential for the non-professional investor in "Real Estate Syndication" outlined by Bertram Lewis, are the others.

A fourth book which should provide solace for capitalists is Hillel Black's "The Watchdogs of Wall Street." This is the inside story of how the Securities Exchange Commission exposes big stock manipulators.

Short novels with a different touch are featured on this week's new book shelf:

The indigenous life of early Texans is reflected in "Pa," by Cothurn Neal; a suspense novel of thwarted young love, arson, and murder is to be found in "The China Governess," by Margery Allingham, and the last days of King Carol's Bucharest provide the backdrop for Olivia Manning's "The Spoilt City."

Nominated for the most perceptive memoirs of the week is "Men and Decisions" by Lewis Strauss.

Predictions of things to come abound in two new science fiction works by masters of the trade: "They Walked Like Men," by Clifford Simak, and Ray Bradbury's "Something Wicked This Way Comes."

During Cuban Crisis

News Media Urged To Be Cautious On Troops Data

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House has asked newspapers and television and radio stations to be cautious and discreet in publicizing information on the armed forces during the Cuban crisis.

Press Secretary Pierre Salinger has issued a memorandum containing 12 matters of information which it considered "vital to our national security."

The memorandum said:

"During the current tense international situation, the White House feels that the publication of such information is contrary to the public interest. We ask public information media of all types to exercise caution and discretion in the publication of such information."

The document said the Defense Department will release no information on the 12 subjects and listed them as guidelines for the nation's news media.

A White House spokesman said the guideline memorandum was in no sense censorship—even voluntary censorship. He said the request was not binding on any media.

The 12 points covered these subjects:

1. Employment of strategic or tactical forces, including types of equipment, command centers and detection systems;

2. Estimates of U.S. capability of destroying targets and penetrating defenses;

3. Intelligence estimates of targets;

4. Intelligence estimates of enemy plans or capabilities, or information that would give a clue to the success of U.S. intelligence with respect to Cuba and the Communist bloc;

5. Details on movement of U.S. forces, vessels, aircraft, missiles and ammunition;

6. The degree of alert of military forces;

7. Location of aircraft;

8. Emergency dispersal plans for aircraft and units;

9. Estimates of vulnerability;

10. New data on missile distribution and readiness, or estimates of capability of missile forces;

11. Details of command and control systems, including estimates of ability to survive attack;

12. Estimates of airlift or sealift capabilities.

The memorandum to editors and radio and television news directors said the government may announce the movement of military units after the transfers have been made. It also said the presence of aircraft that can be observed by the public may be confirmed.

Editors who may doubt whether publication of certain information would breach the guidelines were told to get in touch with the Defense Department news desk. The memorandum said any advice given "will be on an advisory basis and not considered finally binding."

Salinger met Wednesday with representatives of the wire services and TV-radio networks and discussed what he termed the problem of national security information.

White House officials said organizations of foreign news would be called in for a similar conference within a day or so.

Salinger was represented as feeling that it would be useless to take up the subject with Soviet newsmen. The White House took the position that much information reaching the Soviet Union is obtained from U.S. newspapers.

Chester Driver Cited After Skidding Crash

About $400 damage resulted to cars driven by a city man and a Chester woman in a skidding mishap on 3rd St., Chester, Thursday night about 8:05, police reported.

A 1957 sedan operated by Miss Nancy Snyder, 21, of 563 Louisiana Ave., Chester, skidded on the wet wooden overhead bridge between Carolina and Virginia Aves., and hit the rear of a 1958 sedan driven by Adam Goppert, 907 Princeton Ave.

Patrolman Frank Fetty said Goppert had slowed—for another auto making a turn in front of him. Miss Snyder was cited for driving too fast for road conditions, and is slated for a hearing Wednesday before Mayor Harry Abrams.

Vitamin A For The Skin

O. I have been using a face cream containing vitamin A for about a year. So far as I can tell my skin doesn't look any younger. Should I try another brand of vitamin cream?

A. In recent years a number of biologically active substances such as vitamins and hormones have been incorporated in cosmetic preparations. The advertising claims always subtly (or not so subtly) hint at some marvelous benefits. Vitamin A in cosmetics supposedly enhances the appearance of the skin. Actually, there is no acceptable scientific evidence to support the claim that cosmetics containing vitamin A are of greater value than those that lack it.
